In compliance with the FMCSA regulation 391.23 part (i)(1) you have certain rights regarding the investigative information that will be provided to the prospective employer: i) You have the right to review information provided by previous employers: ii) You have the right to have errors in the information corrected by the previous employer and for that previous employer to re-send the corrected information to the prospective employer: iii) You have the right to have a rebuttal statement attached to the alleged erroneous information, if the previous employer and the driver cannot agree on the accuracy of the information. 2. Drivers who have previous DOT regulated employment history in the preceding three years and time, including when applying, or as late as 30 days after being employed or being notified of denial employment. The prospective employer must provide this information within five business days of receiving the written request. If the prospective employer has not yet received the requested information from the previous employer, then the five-business day deadline will begin when the prospective employer receives the requested safety performance history information. If the driver has not arranged to pick up or receive the requested records within 30 days of the prospective employer making them available, the prospective employer may consider you to have waived your request to review the records.

Part 391.23 (e) In addition to the investigations required by paragraph (d) of this section, the prospective motor carrier employers must investigate the information listed below in this paragraph from all previous DOT regulated employers that employed the driver within the previous three years from the date of the employment application, in a safety-sensitive function that required alcohol and controlled substance testing specified by 49 CFR part 40 (e)(1) Whether, within the previous three years, the driver had violated the alcohol and controlled substances prohibitions under subpart B of part 382 of this chapter, or 49 CFR part 40.
