PEACE

One undeniable theme of Advent is Peace. God promised through the prophet Isaiah a coming Messiah who would be named “Wonderful Counselor” and “a Prince of Peace”.

Throughout the Bible’s accounts of Jesus’ birth-before, during and after-the promise made by God was one of Peace. Zechariah, filled with the Holy Spirit, prophesied about his newborn son, John the Baptist, and his role in proclaiming Jesus (Luke 1:76-79):

“And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins, because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the sunrise shall visit us from on high to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

The angels at Jesus’ birth proclaimed, “Glory to God in the highest and peace to his people on Earth”. Simeon, when the child Jesus was brought to him, proclaimed in the Holy Spirit, “Now You are letting Your servant go in Peace”.

Our Advent services begin this week, and I will be explaining the Peace of God given through Jesus...at a time when we are looking for and needing Peace. Peace, we are told, comes from Jesus!

Please join us as we learn and rejoice in God’s promise of Peace through our Lord Jesus Christ.

In Christ,
Pastor
