

January 2021 Sermon Series
Hindsight is 2020!

2020 is officially OVER! So, no more problems, right? (WRONG!)
 What does God want us to do in the midst of all this craziness?
 Believe it or not, He wants us to do one thing...and it's impossible.
 Thank goodness, for Him it's not.

- 3 Strain Phillipians 3:12-14
 Paul makes it clear how we can look forward: stop looking to the messy past. (Oh, is that all???) So, how do we do that? Easy to say, but it's going to be hard to do.
- 10 Potty Mouth Ephesians 4:29
 Do you have a potty mouth? Or, does everything that comes out of your mouth sound negative? Wish you could solve that? (I bet those around you, those you haven't driven off, do!) Then it's time to choose: focus on the negative, or the positive, and choose to be godly.
- 17 Forget About it Isaiah 43:18
 For those of us that struggle with depression, everyone seems to have easy answers to help. (Ugh.) Ironically, so does God! What did he tell Isaiah that would help the struggling nation of Israel find hope in the middle of their struggle?
- 24 Weakling 2 Cor 12:8-10
 Paul does something you don't expect a leader to do: admit his weaknesses. Why would he do something like that? To give God glory. How does that help us be able to leave the past behind?
- 31 Plowing Ahead Luke 9:57-62
 We all want to be known as a follower of Jesus...but usually on our terms. That's not the way God designed this whole Christianity thing. What shocking thing does Jesus suggest we need to leave behind us to follow Him to the future He has designed for us?
