

COVID-19 INFORMED CONSENT

Alderwood Counseling Associates has taken steps to reduce the risk of spreading Covid-19 and have posted our ongoing efforts in the office.

For in-person services at Alderwood Counseling, you agree to take the following precautions to enhance safety for yourself, staff and others in the building:

--Keep appointments only if you are symptom free. If you have any symptoms or if you may have been exposed to someone with Covid-19, please cancel your appointment and reschedule and/or consider telehealth.

-Arrive on time to your appointment, do not spend extra time in the lobby before or after your scheduled appointment time and refrain from bringing individuals not receiving services.

-Use hand sanitizer that is available in the lobby.

-Maintain a safe physical distance from others in the lobby and therapist office space.

Your signature shows that you are agreeing to the terms & conditions described above, you acknowledge the risk of in-person services, have read the posted signage and are aware of telehealth options.
