

Curriculum Vitae of Meghan S. Callen, CPA/CFF

General Background

Since 1997, Ms. Callen has participated in the review and measurement of damage claims. The reviews involve the measurement of insurance losses including property damage, business interruption, extra expense and litigation support. Ms. Callen became a partner of Campos & Stratis, the predecessor firm of Mitchell Semsel Callen, in April 2003. In April 2014, Ms. Callen became a partner of the newly organized firm, Mitchell Semsel Callen, PC.

Education

Bachelor of Arts - Economics/Accounting, 1997
College of the Holy Cross
Worcester, Massachusetts

Professional Licenses

New Jersey CPA
New York CPA

Professional Affiliations

Member of the New Jersey State Society of Certified Public Accountants
Member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
Certified in Financial Forensics, AICPA

Professional History

Ms. Callen was with Campos & Stratis, forensic accountants and consultants from 1997 through 2014. Ms. Callen is involved in forensic accounting assignments and measurements of damage claims for insurance companies and counsel involved in litigation and dispute resolution. This includes analysis of claims for lost profit/earnings, employee dishonesty, expenses incurred in excess of normal and out-of-pocket losses due to property damage.

Publications

Glossary of Legal Terms Commonly Used In Litigation Support, CPA Litigation Service Counselor, March 2001.

Liability Claims: How An Accountant Can Assist,
The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel, August 2002.