Daisy

Daisy loves flowers and is a little sassy! I have a hard time saying no... but I really don't want to do peoples mending or hemming so... what better way than to say – oh ask Daisy!

It is 17.5"x17.5"= 70"

Gnomely

I think COVID 19 has us all feeling a little chubby these days but we can still feel sexy in a gnome-ly way. The applique gnome is a purchased pattern and I designed the border. I finished it with a same fabric binding. It is 17.5" x 22.5" = 80"

Block Buster Block Self-Isolating

A friend send me a picture of a little quilt like this greens and cream fabrics years ago. We both thought it was super cute and I had always planned to make one. But with so many projects, it got forgotten. This challenge seemed the perfect opportunity to finally do it! The perimeter measures 95" - this includes the little block that is heading for self-isolation!

Doggy Bag

Like many quilters I acquired a pile of magazines over a period of years, then went through them pulling out things I might use and putting them in a binder. Then last year I went through the binder and threw most of them away! I did keep this cute dog block pattern as it made me smile but had no idea how to use it. So when the Challenge was announced I decided to use the dog somehow and a "Doggy Bag" seemed the right thing to make. It is about 12" x 14" x 2" straps are approx. 28".

Hazel

Garden in the Clearing

I couldn't resist the fabric when I saw it, and did have a plan for it that isn't going to be as simple as I have hoped. But I couldn't leave it untouched any longer, so I decided to use a bit of it here. Bits of bee, mouse, and snail fabric just seemed to be a logical addition. I added some water and dirt and surrounded it all with sunshine. With the wide range in colours, I decided to use monofilament to quilt some Lori Kennedy bees and dragonflies. is 49" long and 17" wide with a perimeter of 112".
