Biography

A faithfully kind and loving husband, father, and grandpa - Herbert Roggenbuck, age 71 of Bad Axe, went to be with the Lord on Monday, September 25, 2023. He was born December 15, 1951 in Harbor Beach, son of the late Jerome and Dorothy (Messing) Roggenbuck. He married Joann Kiehl on June 7, 1980. Herb was blessed to work on the family farm with his father until he passed; and his brothers for as long as he was able to. Between work and home, he honed the principles of fortitude and fidelity – teaching his children that simply showing up and being present are more important to loved ones than being the most eloquent speaker or talented craftsman. He ended his working days as a partner in The Flower Farm in Bad Axe. In retirement, he loved to read and tinker in his new shed. His most recent hobby of attending sales and auctions. He hadn't yet mastered many projects, but he'd assembled a woodshop that rivaled those of a finish carpenter and taught himself how to be a better welder than he was when farming. A proud lifelong Catholic, he and Joann attended St Joseph church their entire marriage, and he served his parish in many capacities over the years. He was a member of the Bad Axe Knights of Columbus (Council No. 1546) with a 1-2-3-Degree.
