

Retired Admiral

During his service to the Country he successfully commanded U.S. and Hellenic Naval Warships.
Director of all operations of planning NATO for all services.
He provided assessments and security pre & post Berlin Wall.
He was the architect for all the global security for the 2004 Olympic Games.
Creator of the best crisis management center which then became the template for NATO Headquarters and all NATO Countries.

Military Science--enemy combatant effectiveness reduction, emergency response operations, and naval combat.
Functioned as senior threat/security/risk assessment/competitive intelligence analyst and strategist for over 25 years. Recognized authority on global stability, antiterrorism technologies, and intelligence issues covering the Middle East, Balkans and Eastern Europe
Monotoning world crisis situations making assessment solutions always proven 100% accurate.
He continues to provide services to the U.S. and world.

Retired Lt Colonel

During his service to the Country he successfully commanded a Special Forces Company, three Special Forces Operational Detachments (counterterrorist).
He conducted over 200 operational assessments in security, anti-terrorism, counter-terrorism, and counter-drug operations. He was a contributing editor to National Guard Mobilization Policy System, Forces Command Mobilization and Deployment Planning System, and Federal Emergency Management Agency Federal Response Plan (Operations Officer for Joint Task Force Andrew).

He is a graduate of the Joint Staff Antiterrorism Training Course, Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA), Strategic Intelligence and Target Analysis Interdiction Course, Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear, High Yield Explosives (CBRNE) and Special Weapons Officer Course – Nuclear Surety Program
He served as the Subject Matter Expert (SME) for Security, Anti-terrorism, Counterterrorism, and Emergency/Crisis Operations Center procedures for the US Army Reserve Command, CACI, and Northrop Grumman Corporation.

Retired Colonel

Served as Division Chief, Current Operations, Mobilization and Readiness for the United States Army Reserve Command. Responsible for mobilizations in support of operational requirements in Bosnia, Haiti and Rwanda, and support for natural and man-made disasters throughout the United States and its territories; provided counter-drug operational support to the National Counter Drug strategy and Joint Task Force 6, readiness reporting for 208K soldiers; developed and executed the Civil-Military Cooperation Program.

As a Government Contractor served as Program/Project Manager for Omega Training Group, SAIC and Northrop Grumman I.T. At Northrop Grumman served as Program Manager for establishing the Army Reserve Antiterrorism/Force Protection Program throughout the United States and Overseas. Won the 2005 Department of the Army Most Innovative Antiterrorism and Force Protection Program. As on-site manager of the US Army Reserve AT/FP program supervised, participated and reviewed over 2,000 vulnerability assessments, 80 force protection programs validations, 80 DIO vulnerability assessments and engineered a data base of physical vulnerabilities