THE PRESIDENT’S CORNER

Hi ladies,

As I looked out over all my lovely Newcomers friends, resplendent in red, white and blue, I know patriotism is not dead, nor out of style. I was proud of all of you and proud of my country. I know that the USA is not perfect but I wouldn't want to live anywhere else. I want to thank Judy and Harold Babine for sharing their deep and valuable knowledge about the flag and what it stands for. I also think it's wonderful that they shared their special anniversary with us – their Newcomers' family. Harold was so thrilled to be able to pull off the surprise flowers for Judy. Good job, Harold, and congratulations to both of you.

Speaking of family, I wish to acknowledge Shirley Thomas and Martha Cirrotti. They've gone through some hard times recently but they know there's always a place at the table for them among friends.

Our Bingo games were a lot of fun. I always come so close, sigh, so close to winning but congratulations to all those who did win great prizes. Some of the lucky members who won were Linda Selby, Terry Baker, Ronnie Telzer, Carole Jones, Gloria Irwin, Barbara Zeyn, and Martha Cirrotti. Charlotte Becker won the cover-all game with a prize of $68. I don't know where and when Bingo was invented but it does seem to have evolved into America's national game. Even though I didn't win, I want to thank Joan Bové for watching my Bingo card. Thanks go to Ronnie, Linda, Brenda, Kathy and Barbara for pulling it all together. The decorations were great and very appropriate.

Carrabba's did an outstanding job with our food, and we have Ann Denton and Marge Ahearn to thank for finding us such nice luncheon venues.

It seems we have an exciting Fall ahead of us. Wendy has a trip to the Winery. Solly has us on a cruise plus a few surprises as only Solly can do. Pat Pepler reminded us to save the tabs from soda cans for the Ronald McDonald House and to continue to support the troops. Further information on Game Day will be forthcoming. Please check the Chatter. Pat Brizel and Maureen McBride with Let's Do It! are off to a rousing start with Hilarious Dance in October. We're all going to learn how to dance with clothes hangers, toilet brushes, mops and sponges. Gee, don't I do that already when I clean house?

It's wonderful to see so many new faces joining us. A warm welcome is extended to the newest members: Karen Jacobs, Rosemary Sprau, Sharon Prescott, Tricia Fus-ton, Betty Little, Annie Carthy, Mary Ann Dougherty and to the guests who requested applications, you're on your way to belonging to a fantastic club with absolutely delightful and talented ladies.

Happy Birthday to the other July babies. I do have to mention the gorgeous flowers we received. They are outstanding, and the red, white and blue ribbons were just perfect.

Next month will feature a black and white theme at Café Murano in Altamonte Springs. Bring in the oldest newspaper you have for the oldest newspaper contest. We would also like black and white baby pictures to display. It'll be interesting to see if we are still as adorable as our baby pictures.

Besides Bingo winners, we congratulate our regular monthly drawing winners – Carole Jones: free luncheon, Sharon Prescott: $10 gift card to Target, and last but not least, a very excited 50/50 winner: Dru Juhl.

See you next month at Café Murano. Joan L.

"Inside the Arts" September Outing - Lakeridge Winery and Vineyards

We are kicking off the new year of Inside The Arts with Wine and Jazz on Sunday, September 16, 2012 at the Lakeridge Winery and Vineyards in Clermont.

Let's meet first for a tour of the winery (who needs Napa?) and then a self-guided wine tasting (it's happy hour somewhere!).

After that, we can enjoy the jazz of different artists playing from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Lakeridge wines, beer, and soft drinks are available for purchase along with food vendors selling a variety of items to eat while we listen to the music. Bring beach/folding chairs in case there is not enough seating available.

The tour, tasting and music are complimentary, and they will collect a $2 donation for a local charity.

Let's meet at the winery at 11:00 a.m. We can arrange carpools as we get closer to the date.

Check out the winery's website if you want to learn more about them: www.lakeridgewinery.com.

Please RSVP via email to wensue@aol.com or via my cell at 407-761-1496 by Monday, September 10.

The winery is located at 19239 US 27 North, Clermont, FL 34715, tel. 800-768-9463.
