RICKY ALLEN WALDRON

On January 3rd at 7:40PM, Ricky Allen Waldron passed away at home at 62 years old, from a long battle of COPD.

He was born November 6th 1960 in Aurora MN and moved to Two Harbors where he grew up and raised his family with his wife Deborah Waldron.

Ricky was a husband, dad, brother, a Pa, and a friend. Ricky was always fun and the life of the room and party. There was not a conversation where Ricky didn't crack a joke or two. He was always great at being brutally honest and he was always right. He played Softball for many years in his younger years. He enjoyed anything on the water, water skiing, pulling kids behind the boat and trying to get them to flip on the tube. Most of all, Ricky loved fishing and spending time at the family Cabin at Nine Mile lake. He enjoyed playing cards and dice with family and friends.

Ricky Loved to work "bahahahahaha". He worked at Serco and Builtrite for many years as an Assembler, retiring from Builtrite in 2015-ish.

The world lost a really special person, and he will hold a spot in many hearts and memories.

Preceded in death his loving mother Barbara Waldron; father Darrell Waldron; sister Vicki Scribner; nephew Jason Scribner; and mother-in-law, Carla Thompson.

Survived by his wife Deborah Waldron; his kids Scott & Savannah Krech; Jamie Krech; Joshua Waldron; Stacy & Phil (Bill) Nightwine; Kody Waldron; bonus kids Katie Banas, Kelley Zais, and Kelsey Macmillian; grandkids Dakota Fjeran, Layla Krech, Nathalia Krech, Caleb Waldron, Althea Krech, Diego Krech, Rebel Krech, Daxon Krech, Scottie Krech, and Bryson Waldron; siblings, Steve (Wally) Terry Waldron, Jean and Kim Scribner; Ray and Spring Waldron; Deb and Joe Thompson; brother-in-law Mike Scribner; father-in-law, Bill Thompson; and many nieces and nephews and even more friends.

Please join on in a Celebration of Life will be held at the American Legion on January 28th from 1:00-4:00 pm. To share your memories or condolences online please visit www.cavallinfuneralhome.com.

CHRISTOPHER MICHAEL MALLORY

Christopher Michael Mallory, 51, of Barnes, WI, was born May 23, 1971 to Michael and Kathy Mallory, and passed away at his home on January 6, 2023.

Chris was a 1989 graduate of Denfeld High School in Duluth, MN. His love for sports started at an early age. He played baseball and ran track during his high school years. Later, he played softball on various adult leagues and enjoyed a good round of golf from time to time. As his two boys grew up, he followed them to as many of their hockey, football and baseball games as possible, and would take them out to hit a few on the back nine.

He held many different jobs over the years, but his favorites were working as an EMT with Lake County, and most recently at ACE Hardware in Hayward, WI.

Chris gained many friends all over MN and WI over the years. He was always ready to help a buddy with a project or set out on a hunting or fishing trip. Not only was he often the life of the party, but he could cheer anyone up with just a simple hug and a smile.

The most important thing to Chris was his two boys, Tyler and Chase, whom he loved more than anything in this world. Before his first son, Tyler, was born, Chris had bought a stuffed baseball which he brought to the hospital "to start teaching him young". Chris and Tyler shared a love for animals, fishing, hunting and everything outdoors. Chris's youngest son, Chase, inherited his sports gene and looked forward to golfing with his dad every chance they could.

Chris was preceded in death by his grandparents; Fred and Gerry Tafs, and George (Stanley) and Alice Mallory.

Chris will be deeply missed by his sons; Tyler and Chase Mallory, and their mom Christine Mallory, Silver Bay, parents; Mike and Kathy Mallory, Weslaco, TX, sister; Lisa (Brandon) Preston, Culver, MN, wife; Tiffany, stepson; Jayden Sapik, nieces; Julia and Ellie Preston, nephew; Adam Preston, great-niece; Amelia Preston, many Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins, and his beloved dogs.

A Celebration of Life will be held in Chris's honor on Sunday, January 15, 2023 from 2:00p.m. - 6:00p.m. at Mr. D's, 5622 Grand Ave., Duluth, MN
