Gratitude in Action: Our Way of Life

Hunger is defined in a couple of ways. It can be associated with pains or an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach because of a need for food. In a figurative sense, it is a strong desire or craving. We see television and other media ads depicting extreme cases of hunger in poverty situations.

Poverty itself is identified as being poor, lacking what is needed.

Thirst is defined as an uncomfortable feeling in the mouth or throat caused by having had nothing to drink. It, too, is described in a figurative sense as a strong desire or craving.

Hunger and thirst are not always cravings for table food and drink. They can be that strong desire or craving for something we cannot purchase for a specified dollar amount. They might be those desires or cravings we so long for to bring peace to our heart and soul, cravings only God can satisfy.

“There are so many needy people who hunger—but not for bread, they have plenty of bread—but for God! Go there, to tell this truth: Jesus Christ is the Lord and he saves you. But always go and touch the flesh of Christ! The Gospel cannot be preached purely intellectually: the Gospel is truth but it is also love and it is also beauty! And this is truly the joy of the Gospel!”¹

So, where are we in all of this? Is our hunger, our thirst, one which can be satisfied by a grocery store or restaurant purchase? Or, is our hunger and thirst for something much deeper, much greater? Is it a hunger and thirst only God can quench?

In our hunger and thirst, are we the “flesh of Christ” to be touched, or do we feel called to go out into the world to be the presence of Christ, the one to touch the heart and soul of another in need?

In prayer, lifting our hunger and thirst to Jesus who alone can satisfy our deepest longings, our insatiable desires, we will be guided according to the Father’s will. Our feet will be planted on the right path – the path to be nurtured or the path to nurture another.
