Bulletins

BIG BULLETIN CHANGE!

Going forward, weekend bulletins will be available before all Masses in the vestibule and in the bulletin racks around the church.

YOUTH MASS SUNDAY,
NOVEMBER 11, 11:00 AM

Remember that Sunday, November 11, is our regular monthly Youth Mass at 11:00 am this month.

All youth and families are encouraged to join in this celebration of the Eucharist designed especially for our young people.

2019 CALENDARS
ARE AVAILABLE

Calendars for 2019 are now available in the vestibule. Please take only one per family so there will be enough for everyone.

PARISH
STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE CAMPAIGN

Our parish has begun its yearly Stewardship of Treasure Campaign.

This is a particularly important funding event as these funds all accrue to our Parish directly to fund our financial needs throughout the year; our religious education programs, operating funds, building and grounds upkeep to name a few. So far, we have received $18,420 in pledges which represents a 6% response rate for the parish. As Father Peter pointed out at Mass last weekend, the Gospels show us frequently how the gifts we give to others --fish, barley loaves, small coins...-- are the seeds that, through the grace of God, grow into great things. Please give prayerful consideration as to how you might support the Parish at this time. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated!

“OUR MISSION IS TO...

CELEBRATE GOD’S PRESENCE IN OUR MIDST BY MASS, SACRAMENTS, AND PRAYER; LIVE CHRIST’S LOVE BY SERVING OTHERS, ESPECIALLY THE POOR, NEGLECTED, AND SUFFERING;
GROW IN THE TRUTHS AND VALUES OF OUR CATHOLIC TRADITION, TEACH THEM TO OUR CHILDREN, AND PROCLAIM THEM TO THOSE WHO DO NOT KNOW THEM.”

The Virtues - Fortitude and Temperance

§1808-1809

Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good. It strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death, and to face trials and persecutions. It disposes one even to renounce and sacrifice his life in defense of a just cause. "The Lord is my strength and my song." "In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

Temperance is the moral virtue that moderates the attraction of pleasures and provides balance in the use of created goods. It ensures the will's mastery over instincts and keeps desires within the limits of what is honorable. The temperate person directs the sensitive appetites toward what is good and maintains a healthy discretion: "Do not follow your inclination and strength, walking according to the desires of your heart." Temperance is often praised in the Old Testament: "Do not follow your base desires, but restrain your appetites." In the New Testament it is called "moderation" or "sobriety" We ought "to live sober, upright, and godly lives in this world."

To live well is nothing other than to love God with all one's heart, with all one's soul and with all one's efforts; from this it comes about that love is kept whole and uncorrupted (through temperance). No misfortune can disturb it (and this is fortitude). It obeys only (God) (and this is justice), and is careful in discerning things, so as not to be surprised by deceit or trickery (and this is prudence).

CATECISMO DE LA
IGLESIA CATOLICA

Distinción de las virtudes cardinals

La fortaleza - La templanza

§1808-1809

La fortaleza es la virtud moral que asegura en las dificultades la firmeza y la constancia en la búsqueda del bien. Reafirma la resolución de resistir a las tentaciones y de superar los obstáculos en la vida moral. La virtud de la fortaleza hace capaz de vencer el temor, incluso a la muerte, y de hacer frente a las pruebas y a las persecuciones. Capacita para ir hasta la renuncia y el sacrificio de la propia vida por defender una causa justa. "Mi fuerza y mi cántico es el Señor" (Sal 118, 14). "En el mundo tendréis tribulación. Pero ¡ánimo!: Yo he vencido al mundo" (Jn 16, 33).

La templanza es la virtud moral que modera la atracción de los placeres y procura el equilibrio en el uso de los bienes creados. Asegura el dominio de la voluntad sobre los instintos y mantiene los deseos en los límites de la honestidad. La persona moderada orienta hacia el bien sus apetitos sensibles, guarda una sana discreción y no se deja arrastrar "para seguir la pasión de su corazón" (cf Si 5,2; 37, 27-31). La templanza es a menudo alabada en el Antiguo Testamento: "No vayas detrás de tus pasiones, tus deseos refrena" (Si 18, 30). En el Nuevo Testamento es llamada "moderación" o "sobriedad". Debemos "vivir con moderación, justicia y piedad en el siglo presente" (Tt 2, 12).

Vivir bien no es otra cosa que amar a Dios con todo el corazón, con toda el alma y con todo el obrar. Quien no obedece más que a El (lo cual pertenece a la justicia), quien vela para discernir todas las cosas por miedo a dejarse sorprender por la astucia y la mentira (lo cual pertenece a la prudencia), le entrega un amor entero (por la templanza), que ninguna disgracia puede derribar (lo cual pertenece a la fortaleza).
