

Chapter 25 QuizPart 1

1. _____ Federal law promoted by a self-appointed morality crusader and used to prosecute moral and sexual dissidents
2. _____ Nativist organization that attacked “New Immigrants” and Roman Catholicism in the 1880s and 1890s
3. _____ Organization formed by Elizabeth Cady Stanton and others to promote the vote for women
4. _____ Settlement house in the Chicago slums that became a model for women’s involvement in urban social reform
5. _____ Organization founded by W. E. B. Du Bois and others to advance black social and economic equality.
6. _____ High-rise buildings that provided barracks-like housing for urban slum dwellers
7. _____ Term for the post-1880 newcomers who came to America primarily from southern and eastern Europe
8. _____ The church that became the largest American religious group, mainly as a result of the “New Immigration”

Part 2

9. Countries from which many of the “New Immigrants” came included
 - a) Sweden and Great Britain
 - b) Germany and Ireland
 - c) Poland and Italy
 - d) China and Japan
10. Unlike Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois advocated
 - a) Economic opportunities for blacks
 - b) Integration and social reform for blacks
 - c) Practical as well as theoretical education for blacks
 - d) That blacks remain in the south rather than move north
11. Two religious groups that grew most dramatically because of “New Immigration” were
 - a) Methodists and Baptists
 - b) Christian Scientists and the Salvation Army
 - c) Episcopalians and Unitarians
 - d) Jews and Roman Catholics
12. One of the most difficult new problems generated by the rise of cities and the urban American life-style was
 - a) Dealing with the horses and other animals in crowded urban settings
 - b) Developing means of communication in densely populated city centers
 - c) Disposing of large quantities of consumer related waste material
 - d) Finding effective methods of high-rise construction for limited urban space

13. Two new technological developments of the late nineteenth century that contributed to the spectacular growth of American cities were
 - a) The telegraph and the railroads
 - b) The compressor and the internal combustion engine
 - c) The electric trolley and the skyscraper
 - d) The oil furnace and the air conditioner
14. Besides aiding immigrants and promoting social reforms, settlement houses like Jane Addams's Hull House demonstrated that
 - a) The secret ballot and direct election of senators
 - b) Antisweat-shop laws to protect women and child laborers
 - c) Social security and unemployment compensation
 - d) Conservation of federal aid to municipal governments
15. The one immigrant group that was totally banned from America after 1882 as a result of nativist agitation was the
 - a) Irish
 - b) Greeks
 - c) Africans
 - d) Chinese