

Herbert "Book" McCray

HIGH SCHOOL:

Member of Shawnee High School KHSAA 1973 State
Championship Team

Honorable Mention All-State Selection

Leading Rebounder

UTC:

Sixth Man Award

MVP of First UT-Chattanooga Christmas Basketball Tournament, 1975

Team Leader In Rebounds, 1975

Member of 1976 Division II National Runner-up Team in Basketball

Member of 1977 Division II National Championship Team in Basketball

PROFESSIONAL:

Twice Named the Omega Man of the Year, by the Kappa IOTA Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity (I am not a member of that fraternity)

Member of the Chattanooga School of the Arts & Sciences
Basketball Coaching Staff That

Finished Second in the TSSAA Class A 1993 State Basketball Championship Tourney.

Member of Team of Chattanooga Educators Who Collaborated With Futurist, Joel Barker and

Opened The Twenty-First Century Academy in 1994. The School
Offered

Project-Based Teaching & Learning Across The Themes of Ecological, Futures & Global.

Founder and CEO of the Independent Youth Services Foundation,
Inc., a Non-profit Mentoring

Organization Dedicated To Engaging Families In The Positive Development of Young Men Through High School Graduation and Beyond.