

Cecil Thomas Treadway

Aug 2, 1927 – Feb 1, 2016

Cecil Thomas Treadway was born in Little Rock, Arkansas on August 2, 1927. He passed away on February 1, 2016. Cecil graduated from Little Rock Central High School and then enlisted in the Navy. Cecil was a prominent businessman in Little Rock from the late 1940's with Little Rock Carpet and Linoleum, through the late 1950's with Western Hills Country Club. After developing Western Hills and running it for a decade, he moved to Rogers, Arkansas. There, he continued pursuing his career in residential and commercial real estate.

Through the late 1950's to the late 1970's, he enjoyed his love of Quarter horses. He competed in the cutting ring, winning several Arkansas Cutting Horse Association Championships. A lifelong lover of golf, he enjoyed tennis after moving to Bella Vista, Arkansas.

In 1978, along with his daughter Cathy, established Arkansas School of Real Estate in Bentonville. The school operated from 1978 until 2003.

At the time of his death, he was living with his daughter Cathy in Colorado. Cecil is survived by his two daughters, Cathy Percefull (Brad) and Cindy Alter (Tom), and a brother, Wilton.
