

Save the Date

Central Wisconsin Summit on Child Maltreatment

Tuesday, December 4, 2018 | 8:15 a.m. – 4:15 p.m.
Hotel Marshfield, 2700 S Central Ave, Marshfield, WI 54449

Keynote speaker, Dr. Linda Chamberlain is an internationally recognized advocate on domestic violence, Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), brain development and trauma, and the amazing adolescent brain. Known for her abilities to translate science into practical strategies with diverse audiences, she conveys a message of hope.

Conference Topics

- Trauma Stewardship
- Updates in Sexual Abuse
- Working with the Mennonite & Amish population
- Torture as a form of Child Abuse
- Neurobiology of Addiction in Teens

Who should attend?

Physicians, law enforcement, public health, social workers, medical & legal professionals, WIC, educators and child advocates.

Registration fee:

Physicians: $125, Non-Physicians: $50

To register, email Tanya Esser at esser.tanya@marshfieldclinic.org

Brought to you by:

Marshfield Clinic
Health System