November 2021

Thank you for my hurting.

— In these difficult days, do we have the faith to embrace our pain as a gift from God?

David, a 2-year old with leukemia, was taken by his mother, Deborah, to Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, to see Dr. John Truman who specializes in treating children with cancer and various blood diseases. Dr. Truman's prognosis was devastating: "He has a 50-50 chance."

The countless clinic visits, the blood tests, the intravenous drugs, the fear and pain—the mother's ordeal can be almost as bad as the child's because she must stand by, unable to bear the pain herself.

David never cried in the waiting room, and although the staff in the clinic had to hurt him and stick needles in him, he hustled in ahead of him mother with a smile, sure of the welcome he always got.

When he was three, David had to have a spinal tap—a painful procedure at any age. It was explained to him that, because he was sick, Dr. Truman had to do something to make him better. "If it hurts, remember it's because he loves you," Deborah said. The procedure was horrendous. It took three nurses to hold David still, while he yelled and sobbed and struggled. When it was almost over, the tiny boy, soaked in sweat and tears, looked up at the doctor and gasped, "Thank you, Dr. Tooman, for my hurting." *

Health, strength, food, clothing, family, friends, our jobs, the opportunity to save for the future... all of these are good gifts from God. But pain and struggle can also be gifts from God. Pain signals us that something in our lives needs attention. Pain moves us to act when we might otherwise do nothing. Pain drives us to our knees in prayer and reminds us of our need for God and our dependence on Him.

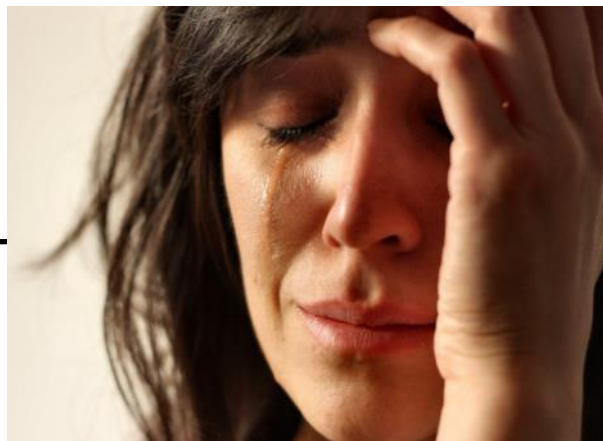

In the Old Testament, we read that as the Hebrew people were about to enter the Promised Land—a land flowing with milk and honey, a place of comfort and prosperity—God warned them that their comfortable life would lead them to neglect their relationship with God, drift away from Him, forget that they needed Him.

The same happens today. In our comfortable society, when we have the resources to meet our needs and then go off to enjoy ourselves, God gets relegated to what ever is left over of our time, attention, and priority. We can look back and see days when we were much more faithful to Him in worship, ministry, witness, and spiritual growth.

Maybe these increasingly difficult days are a gift from God. In this season of Thanksgiving, would you say, "Thank you, God, for my hurting"?

Worship

Are Your Thoughts Taking You to Where God Wants You to Go?

It's amazing at how much our thoughts determine our joy and success, how much they shape our relationships with each other and our relationship with God... for good or bad.

The first Sunday of this month, we finish up our series "Mind Control." If you missed any of the messages, you can catch up on our church website under the Resources tab, where we have the audio of each Sunday's message.

October 31 — Moving Past the Superficial
Philippians 1:12-18

November 7 — Trading Anxiety for Peace
Philippians 4:6-9; Romans 8:5-6

November 14 — Life-Changing Christmas Plans
Isaiah 61:1-3
(Early Preparation for Christmas!)

November 21 — How Great I Am (Thanksgiving)
Deuteronomy 8:10-19

November 28 — First Sunday in Advent

Have you heard the "doom and gloom" crowd telling us how depressing Christmas will be this year because of supply chain issues? Here's the good news: there is no supply chain problem when it comes to God's blessings of Christmas peace, hope, and joy! So in defiant response, our Advent/Christmas series this year will borrow from the classic story "How the Grinch Stole Christmas" as we hear and celebrate the true meaning of Christmas.

SAM Thanksgiving Luncheon, Nov. 9

On Tuesday, November 9, our senior adult ministries will have a covered dish lunch together in the fellowship hall. We will celebrate Thanksgiving with a delicious lunch featuring smoked turkey and sweet potato casserole from Mik's. You just need to bring some side dishes and/or desserts to contribute! After we have stuffed ourselves to the gills, we are going to practice one of my family's Thanksgiving traditions - we will watch a Christmas movie together. Christmas with the Kranks is funny, entertaining, and has a wonderful message. I hope you will come and that you will find that friend who doesn't have a great group like ours to be part of and bring them with you!

Alabama Theater, Dec. 7

As of this writing, there is only one ticket left for purchase for our trip to Myrtle Beach for a Christmas show and dinner! Tickets will be sold until Monday, November 8 or until they are all sold, whichever comes first. Then on Tuesday, December 7, we will load up in the vans and head to Alabama Theater to see a terrific Christmas show and then head over to the Chestnut Hill Restaurant to enjoy a delicious dinner. Our group ate at this restaurant last year and it got rave reviews from everyone. Members and non-members can purchase tickets at this time. The cost for members/regular participants is $70 per person, and for non-members is $80 per person.

Zoo Life, Lunch, & Ice Cream, Oct. 21

On Thursday, October 21 @ 8:15 am, we headed off for an amazing and fun trip to the wide spot in the road, Macclesfield, NC, where It's a Zoo Life is located! There we had an up close and personal experience with some fun, interesting animals as we went on a guided tour of the zoo and it's residents.

Following our 1 1/2 hour tour, we headed off to Greenville, a short drive away, to have a delicious lunch at McAlister's Deli.

Our last stop was the Simply Natural Creamery for an ice cream treat before heading back home!

Chancel Choir

The Chancel choir is hard at work preparing for our Christmas program to be held on Sunday afternoon, December 5 @ 5:00 in the sanctuary. We will have a mix of choral numbers, scripture readings, and media, so there is something for everyone! I hope you will put the date and time on your calendar and plan to attend. But more importantly, I hope you will ask another family, who doesn't attend church anywhere, to join you for this special time together.

SonShine Choir

SonShine choir, made up of senior adults, will have their rehearsal on Tuesday, November 16 @ 10:30! Anyone who is available, and would like to, will go to lunch together following rehearsal. We would love to have you join us! All voices are welcome!

11:00 Sound Board Team

Our 11:00 service could use another person for the sound board. We have a new person working the sound board for our 11:00 worship services. But just one person doing such an important job isn't enough. We would love to have a whole team of people who help with this important part of our services. Wouldn't it be great to have 2 or 3 people who could fill in this position? Maybe God is calling you! If you are interested, please let Dee know. She can hook you up with the training you will need to do it!

Christmas Concert & Craft Fair Duplin Dulcimers, Nov. 28 @ 5:00 p.m.

The Duplin Dulcimer choir will be leading us in a time of celebration of Christmas on Sunday afternoon, November 28 @ 5:00. They will present a mix of Christmas songs, on this first Sunday of Advent, that will help get your holiday season started off on the right foot!

While you enjoy the music, your children/grandchildren, ages kindergarten through 5th grade, will have the opportunity to make some holiday preparations of their own with some of our wonderful volunteers! A nursery will be provided for preschoolers birth to 4.

Following the concert, pick up your children and head on over to the fellowship hall where there will be some refreshments for you to enjoy as you look at some crafts produced by some of our church members. If you see something that you just know a friend or family member would love, you can purchase it and have some of your Christmas shopping done!

We hope that you will come and take part in this festive, fun evening and get your Christmas season started off on a great note!

November Student Announcements

Here is a recap of October 2021. During Life Group, the students have been studying spiritual beings mentioned in scripture through a video series from the Bible Project. They have discussed how the roles of different spiritual beings fit into the greater narrative of scripture and our world today. On October 3rd, the students enjoyed food, games, and a campfire at the Britton house! Yes, s'mores were included! At the time of the writing of this article, we are planning to host a Halloween event on October 31st. We pray that the students are able to serve their church and community with candy, games, and a short message.

Going into November, Student Life Groups will conclude their video series and discussion on the topic of spiritual beings within the Bible. Sunday Evening Meetings will continue at 6pm on Sunday evenings with meals prepared and served by Patsey Spell, Ann English, Louise Woods, and Dee Thompson. However, the Student Sunday Evening Meeting will be canceled on November 28th due to Jon and Mary Britton being out of town.

There will be a group adventure planned for the students sometime during November and they will be notified as soon as the details are put together. Thank you to all who willingly give their time, prayer, and finances to support and uplift the FBC Wallace Student Ministry!

Grace and Peace,
Jon Britton

Prom Glitz

Prom Glitz is back!! On Saturday, February 5th our fellowship hall will be filled with hundreds of beautiful prom dresses and accessories. But what will be even more beautiful are the young girls who will be coming to shop. We want them to feel special, loved and told they are beautiful. Everything the girls chose is free even down to the onsite alterations. Prom Glitz is open to W-RH, East Duplin, Duplin County Early College High School and Pender High.

Between now and February 5th spread the word, ask friends if they have any gently worn prom dresses, jewelry, shoes or purses they would like to donate. All dresses are carefully checked and taken to the dry cleaners. Also, look for great buys on any of the above items. You can donate or be reimbursed for your great finds!

Each girl who comes registers when they first arrive. We can use their contact information to share and invite them and their friends to upcoming youth events. We have heard over and over, "my child could not have gone to the prom if they had not received a dress from your church!" And all the hard work is worth it, when you see a young girl smile at her reflection in a mirror.

Support Group

Helping SELF: Helping to Support and Encourage Lost Families

Purpose: to support and encourage families dealing with drug or alcohol addiction.

This is not a 12 Step program or a how to group. We simply want to let families dealing with addiction know that they are not alone. Are you feeling lost and alone? Are you feeling isolated? Do you feel like “no one can possibly understand”?

We have been and still are experiencing these very feelings. We are stepping forward to share our experiences, vent to each other, and pray for one another and our families. We can learn together what enabling and co-dependency are and how to avoid those behaviors.

We are willing to laugh with you, cry with you, encourage you, support you, pray with you and help you find your way out of isolation. You are NOT alone.

Our next meeting is at First Baptist Church in Wallace on November 10, 2021 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parlor. Park in the back and follow the signs.

Future meeting times and dates will be announced as we find out when we are needed. If you have a different time or day, call 910-284-7101.
