March 2023

Dear creative friends,

MultiArt STUDIO continues to thrive as a place for art making of all sorts. With children as young as 8 as well as young-at-heart grandmothers, we learn and grow together in the infinite vocabulary of creative expression. Exploration, trying new things, is so much fun! The process evolves, “What do I want to say in this particular piece?”

I am honored to have been chosen to be an artist in the Found in Translation 2023 team in Hirzenbach, run by the Expotranskultur, highlighting migration stories of individuals coming to Zurich. The Exhibition will take place from September 27 to October 6. Until I receive my story from FiT, I am working on a tribute to Hedgehogs and a fall New England landscape.

Several of us who exhibited in February with Vogtei Live! were asked to participate in the Christmas Art Market at the Galerie Vogtei in December. We used the walls and set up displays on tables of small paintings and sketches as well as cards for sale. Stay tuned for an update about our exhibition at Galerie Vogtei this year.

ZIWA Sketching and Painting “kicked off” here at MultiArt STUDIO and we plan to meet next at the UZH Archaeology Museum on March 16. For more information about this group and future events please contact me artmultifacet@aol.com .

Wishing each of you a joyful and colorful spring into Spring!

Kind regards,

Kathie
