

Erie Ski Club Presents:

Big Sky Montana!

Feb, 5-12, 2022

Land packages from $1370.

Early signup special! $50 discount to club members who sign up and deposit by June 1, 2021!

Air rates have not yet been published, working on that.

See details below or email BigSky2022esc@gmail.com

Big Sky: Yeah, it's big! 5850 acres, 4350 vertical feet, 38 lifts. There is plenty of skiing for all abilities from newbies to people who belong in Warren Miller movies. (Some of the terrain requires you to have an avalanche beacon and shovel!) It is also one of the least crowded resorts in the US due to the remote location and limited lodging at the resort. Big Sky is an expensive resort, the sheer size and limited crowds explains that, but the "bang for the buck" is definitely there. Check out the resort at:

www.bigskyresort.com

Bridger Bowl: We will be bussing to Bridger on Wednesday for a day trip. Bridger is one of the not so little gems that get passed by, and that's a shame. They have 2000 acres and 2700 vertical feet at all ability levels, serviced by 8 chairs. Check them out at: www.bridgerbowl.com

We will also be very close to Yellowstone, that opens up a lot of other activities such as snowmobiling.

Transportation: We are arranging this trip much earlier than usual, that was necessary because Big Sky is already almost sold out with other clubs! As a result of this, group air is not yet posted for these dates so we cannot quote that yet. Stay tuned! We will try to book flights out of both Cleveland and Pittsburgh as usual. It may be more practical to arrange "individual air" as this is often less expensive. Our tour operator can arrange this or you can book yourself. Just be aware that you will need to be at the airport to use our bus.

A bus will be provided from Bozeman to Big Sky, this will be scheduled to accommodate arrivals. When we see air schedules, we will finalize this. If you are booking your own air, I would advise a morning flight! A grocery stop will be provided.

There is no "airport overnight" on flight day so we will bus directly from Big Sky to the airport. Again, this will be scheduled when flight schedules are posted. We will try for morning flights so we aren't getting back late.

Lodging: 7 nights of lodging are included with 2 options.

Huntley Inn. The classic motel in the village. It's slope side, breakfast is included, and it's being remodeled for next year. Heard lots of great things about this lodge.

Big Horn Condos. We have 2 3BR, 6 person condos reserved. More may be available if needed. 2BR condos are sold out at this time. These are a short walk from the lifts and a good value at a lower price point. We will ask about guaranteed bedding as groups sign up.

Travel insurance:

We are arranging a group policy with Travel Protectors as in the past. When that policy is up, you will be able to purchase that directly from Myra at 703-443-9055. More information will be distributed when you sign up.

Want to double up on trips? The Western PA Ski Council is running a trip to Jackson Hole the week after this trip, quite a few people will be combining these 2 trips for a 2 week vacation. Air will be arranged to Bozeman and back from Jackson WY, and we will rent SUVs to drive between the trips to make this work. Both Big Sky and Jackson are on the IKON pass and if you are going on both trips the pass will save you money. Yeah, we planned it this way! We've done this before and it works well.

Cancellation policy:

Upon written notice, you will receive a refund of recoverable expenses as incurred by the club due to your cancellation. This will vary depending on when you cancel. You may be charged for your roommate's single supplement if your cancellation results in an unused bed. There may be re-ticketing charges. If you need to cancel, please contact the trip leader ASAP to determine what the penalties will be.

IKON Pass!

So as you have noticed, the lift tickets have got to be quite pricey. This is not just at Big Sky but all over. If you plan to take more than one trip, an IKON pass (Or EPIC if you are going to Brand V resorts) makes sense. You do need to be aware of blackout dates and what each pass offers.

There are several levels of IKON pass to choose from. Watch blackout dates and what resorts are included. You need to upgrade to a “plus” pass to access the Aspen areas and Jackson, that’s a $150 kicker.

So if you do decide on an IKON, watch which option you are getting and make sure you get what you want.

Note that the “early” pricing is out now and these rates WILL go up. There is a renewal discount also, and that stay or go away.

They do offer a “pass protection plan”, not a bad idea!

The Big Sky trip is being run through Ski.com, they are offering the $30 discount on the trip if you purchase an IKON pass through this web site. <https://erie-ski-club-passes.events.ski.com>. (One Ski.com discount per pass.)

WPSC’s Jackson Hole trip is the week after the Big Sky trip, it is being run through Winter Ski and Sport, a different tour operator. They are offering a $60 discount if you buy your IKON pass through them. If you are planning to do both of these back to back trips, my advice would be to buy your pass through them. Here’s the info on this, for those on the JACKSON trip.

Buy your IKON through Winter Ski & Sports, www.winterskiandsport.com and click on IKON order tab. BE CAREFUL AND PURCHASE THE RIGHT PASS. IKON BASE PLUS PASS IS $729 PLUS $150 FOR JACKSON/ASPEN. The IKON price will go up the longer you wait. Must be on the Jackson trip to qualify for $60 room discount

Note that you can only get one discount for buying an IKON pass through the tour operator, The Jackson trip offers the larger discount so if you are on that trip but it there.

COVID Considerations...

I know this talk is depressing, but these things do need consideration.

COVID should be almost gone by this Fall, but in the event it isn't we, as a group, can cancel the trip up to Sept 15 if COVID is still a problem. I am not sure what the criteria is for this but with the vaccinations in progress it should not be an issue.

If we have 20 people who want to go, the trip is on.

If we have less than 20, we MAY be able to negotiate a reduced minimum from the suppliers but no promise can be made as we will need to negotiate with the suppliers.

After Sept 15, there are penalties for cancelling so trip insurance is HIGHLY recommended. Regular insurance will not cover you if you decide to cancel for fear of COVID. If you actually have COVID they should cover it. "Cancel for any reason" insurance would cover ANY cancellation but you get a reduced payout. Note that for the "cancel for any reason" coverage you need to purchase the insurance at your first payment.

There is a clause in our contract with the resort that in the event of a mass cancellation due to many factors including pandemic, full refunds will be given. This applies to the land package on the other end. (The Bridger portion is booked separately so excluded.) Airlines have their own policies separate from this. Airlines generally do not give cash back but give vouchers for future travel. Again, more information will be coming.

There has been some talk of the airlines requiring proof of vaccination to board. Just talk for now but it makes good business sense that they would require this to boost confidence so more people fly.
