Commander's Stuff

By Bruce Harken

I was living in the basement for 10 days in COVID isolation. Got to sleep a lot, watch TV a lot and lost about 8 pounds. No temperature, just a runny nose and a cough. Glad to be free!

The Annual Steak Fry will be held from noon to 1:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 9, at the Western Springs Baptist Church, 4475 Wolf Road. Our Post has been asked to provide the color for the luncheon. Uniforms for our members will be blue polos and tan pants or shorts. Color Guard members, please bring your Post covers also. There is no charge for members of the Post or any veteran. Let's have a good turn out. The sponsor for this event is the Rotary Club of Western Springs.

Labor Day (hopefully not the end of summer weather) is Monday, Sept. 5.

Our August pizza day at Hines RCF was sponsored by Mr. Casey of Casey's Market here in Western Springs. Pizzas were picked up and delivered by Tom Higgins, a friend of our Post.

I hope to see everyone on Tuesday Sept. 13, at our next Post meeting day. We have a lot of issues we need to discuss.
