FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

South Lebanon Woman Elected as State Chaplain for Pennsylvania DAR

CORNWALL, Pa.-A Cedar Crest graduate and South Lebanon Township resident has been elected as the State Chaplain for the Pennsylvania State Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution

H. Rebekah Waddell will begin her three-year term this month. The Pennsylvania State Society of the DAR has 95 chapters and more than 6000 current members.

The DAR State Chaplain assists in supporting fellow DAR chaplains throughout the Commonwealth. Additionally she supports members of the DAR, particularly those who are ill or in distress. DAR Chaplains coordinate memorial services for deceased members and conduct religious services when needed.

Waddell is looking forward to her term. “Through the years, I have come to know and love the daughters. The chaplain serves to spiritually support the living and honor the service of the deceased. I am looking forward to serving in this capacity.”

She received her bachelor’s degree and Master of Business Administration from Penn State. Waddell is a past regent of the Cornwall Iron Furnace DAR and its current treasurer.

For more information about the Cornwall Iron Furnace DAR visit <http://www.cornwallironfurnacedar.org/> or contact the Chapter Regent Heather Waddell, at info@cornwallironfurnacedar.org or (717) 926-1166. Any woman 18 years or older - regardless of race, religion, or ethnic background - who can prove lineal descent from a patriot of the American Revolution, is eligible for membership.

H. Rebekah Waddell has been elected as the chaplain for the Pennsylvania State Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is a South Lebanon resident and graduate of Cedar Crest.
