AN ISSEI GRANDEATHER RETURNS FROM THE DEAD TO BRING J-TOWN BACK TO LIFE!

After 99 years in business, Sansei Alan Iwata has decided it's time to shut down his family's manju-ya. But just as the doors are about to close, the spirit of his Issei grandfather returns to take Alan back to J-Town, the way it used to be. A story about family, history and finding one's roots, "Nihonmachi: The Place to Be" features nostalgic Japanese and American songs which will take you back through time to the special place where it all began: Nihonmachi.

Growing Up
SANSEI

A Community Event about Our Uniquely JA Upbringing

FEATURING: A live play reading of Soji Kashiwagi's "Garage Door Opener", and a post-reading discussion facilitated by Dr. Satsuki Ina.

READERS: Haruye Ioka, Dian Kobayashi, Kurt Kuniyoshi, Shaun Shimoda, Ping Wu

IN SOJI KASHIWAGI'S JA DYSFUNCTIONAL FAMILY PLAY, "GARAGE DOOR OPENER," a Sansei brother and sister are faced with the daunting task of cleaning out their parent's garage after they passed away. As they sift through tofu containers and kamaboko boards, they begin to uncover items from their past and gain a better understanding of their parents—and themselves—by the items their parents left behind. Dr. Satsuki Ina will address these issues and more in what promises to be an enlightening post-reading discussion.
