President's Message

Welcome to 2019 Rye Historical Society members & friends. May yours be full of splendid opportunities to enjoy your family and beyond in the beauty of Rye, NH!

We had a lovely Open House in December, closing out a great year of programs, Trolley Tours, and visitors. I have hopes that we may be able to produce a future tour this year to introduce the public to the Rye Beach Neighborhood tour. You can preview now simply by downloading the app IZI.TRAVEL on either your smart device, or even on your computer for armchair travel. It is 25 stops, which will tell stories about the boarding houses, inns and summer hotels, including historic and current pictures. This is a treasure to share with your summer visitors and a way to get out for a nice walk.

No matter how your relationship with Rye began; whether through generations of family residence, summer visits, or exploring the area via Atlantic waters, your connection is likely one of deep appreciation for spectacular resources: land, water, and history. The RHS Board and volunteers are gearing up to explore these connections in a new format within the Town Museum. The Museum will transform over the winter months - we know our 2019 has begun with a spirit of creative transformation and research!

Our past will be presented in a current technological format that will encourage all of us to continue our exploration of Rye's deep roots: from families long resided here to seasonal visitors turned neighbors, to new friends brought here for vocation and avocation. Come visit and explore in May our new surroundings in the same lovely building next to Rye Public Library.

Thank you to all members & friends, who have renewed, donated and sponsored. We are incredibly fortunate to have your support, financially and energetically, and welcome it. As a volunteer organization, your enthusiasm is our driver to renew and succeed.

Warmest wishes to YOUR spectacular 2019! I'll see you around town, or in the garden(s).

There's a NEW EXHIBIT Coming to the Rye Town Museum

The newly formed Exhibit Committee has started planning for a new exhibit which will be unveiled in May 2019. The theme is the economic forces that have shaped Rye as a town: Fishing, Farming and Fun.

With new wall graphics, photos, artifacts and treasures from our extensive textiles collection, we will interpret these three important aspects of life in Rye from the first settlers to present day.

Volunteers who would like to work on this project are welcome! Please contact Anne Richter Arnold at anne.richter123@gmail.com.
