Brethren, Family and Friends,

Happy New Year to you and your family, welcome to 2021. I think for all of us a New Year couldn't get here soon enough. We can all use a fresh start and I'm hoping for brighter days this year.

We are still not allowed to meet in person and will be holding our 2021 Installation of Officers in a virtual format on Monday Jan 4th, 7:30PM, as part of our January stated meeting. The officers will open the Lodge and the meeting at 7:00PM we will then open up the zoom room to family, friends and non masons at 7:30. Virtual meeting information to come later. Opening the installation to non masons will allow our applicants and prospects to attend and see a little bit of who and what we do while our hands are still tied by Covid restrictions. We are so fortunate to have a number of applicants and prospects patiently waiting to start their masonic journey. Thank you to those men for patiently waiting. On that note - officers we need to be prepared to hit the ground running on degree work once we are allowed to initiate, raise and pass worthy men and brothers.

Brother Pete Biggam our Assistant Secretary and myself are performing a number of the secretary duties under the guidance of Wr. Frank Young. The cost of dues for 2021 is $105.25. We appreciate the brothers that have paid their 2021 dues. If you have access to iMember you can pay your dues online as well as download your 2021 dues card. We are most likely going to "snail mail" aka USPS paper dues cards out to all members in good standing along with dues notices however this may not happen until later in January. If you need a paper copy ASAP please reach out to myself or our assistant secretary. I appreciate your patience on this.

The Lodge has received approval from the Grand Lodge property committee to start the building renovation project and we have signed the contract with Slatter Construction! A lot of brothers have worked hard for several years on renovation plans of the building so I appreciate everyone's input and a true example of teamwork while spreading the cement of brotherly love and affection. Hopefully the physical cement will start flowing early in 2021.

Happy New Year!

Faternally,

Brian Calverley - Worshipful Master - 2021

Brothers and Friends,

I am happy to report that interest in Masonry and our lodge appears to be stronger than ever. Contact made through our website seems to come in weekly with requests for more information about joining or affiliating! These are troubling times, and people must be reflecting on things and looking for answers. Masonry can help in a number of ways: By providing quality human interaction, giving lessons for self-improvement, answering questions about the big picture, and striving to make this earth home a better place than we found it. So, it is no wonder that the promise of Masonry is still strong. The lessons it teaches remind me of the great Stoics who conquer their wild passions, live life accepting whatever presents itself in the current moment, and aligning their will with the will of Zeus. Substitute Great Architect for Zeus, and you have a pretty good description of a Mason! In fact, when you compare Masonry with many other great traditions, there appears to be plenty of common ground. It is no wonder, then, why we continue to be relevant in an age so taken with materiality and superficial interaction.

Okay, I'll step off the soapbox now! Just a quick update on the Hall Association and renovation project: Mike Termini, who is "retired" and hanging out in Florida, has once again graciously helped out by providing an electrical plan that meets Title 24 energy requirements; help is now needed for moving things into storage to make room for Slatter Construction to start demolition; and a county permit application will be submitted as soon as the plans are complete.

Faithfully yours,

Zeke Floro

Happy New Year Brothers, family and friends,

I hope that my wish for your happy holidays has and continues to come true and that this greeting finds you well and full of the reinvigorating happiness that comes from sharing special occasions with beloved companions. The New Year's Day holiday brings with it the promise of a fresh year and rarely has that promise, and the hope for it, been greater or more eagerly anticipated than it will be this year. New Year's resolutions often being frivolous and carrying little priority, may this year come with a greater determination to see them through. In the light of the very recent health crisis which has disrupted our lives to an unprecedented degree, and with an eye forward to our return to normal interactions, perhaps some of the changes we see in store for ourselves will find their priority given a slight increase. Knowing that all of us are together in navigating these tense and often puzzling times, maybe small acts of kindness will see their importance given a similar increase.

With gratitude we welcome this new year and the new opportunities it brings. My warm hope for each of you, during this holiday season and always, is one of fulfillment and harmony and whatever may be your goals for the future, I wish each of you the greatest success and ultimate happiness.

Fraternally,
Peter Cardilla,
Jr. Warden 2021
