

A Message from Goodwill Industries of Northwest Texas

Goodwill Industries of Northwest Texas (GINWT) wants our Goodwill family, friends and neighbors on the South Plains and Panhandle to know we are continuously monitoring the COVID-19 situation and prioritizing our team members' and the public's health, first.

We are coordinating and implementing a local action plan based on information from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), other local, state and federal authorities and incorporating measures recommended by Goodwill Industries International.

We are taking proactive measures by educating and arming our workforce with the CDC's best practices for health and hygiene. Goodwill Amarillo, Plainview and Wolfforth are making hand sanitizer readily available at all locations and following other health recommendations, such as consistent hand washing, keeping surface areas sanitized and staying home if showing any signs of an illness.

Our first priority remains the health and safety of our staff, and our loyal customers, donors and program participants. While all locations have made arrangements to take donations at this time, donors are asked to place items in the bins provided or to unload their own vehicles at the trucks to avoid social contact. Donations are being quarantined for 72-hours before a sanitizing agent is being applied to them.

Based on the information at this time donation stations and Document Destruction Services remain open, with some modifications as follows: Our Amarillo and Plainview stores will be operating Monday – Saturday, from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and Closed on Sundays. All Lubbock locations, including Wolfforth, will be temporarily closed until further notice, but donations are continuing to be taken at all store locations (except the Showroom) and truck sites. Updates will be made as changes occur and posted at www.goodwillnwtexas.org and on Facebook @GoodwillNWTX.

For those customers who prefer to shop from home, we recommend visiting us at www.shopgoodwill.com.

Goodwill Industries of Northwest Texas extends our deepest appreciation to everyone in our community for their support!
