Super Bowl Thoughts and Season Recap

The Super Bowl year in and year out is the most watched, hyped, analyzed, scrutinized and wagered event in the world. It's the game where gambling goes from being a sort of "taboo" among the general public to something nearly 100 million Americans will partake in.

Because everyone wants to have a little "extra" something on the big game whether it be Super Bowl squares, side or total or the more than 500 Super Bowl prop plays, demand is at an all-time high for handicappers to deliver their customers winners on the big game. Fair or unfair it's also the game customers usually judge whether or not to sign back up with a particular service for the next season.

As for us, we think betting the Super Bowl side and/or total is mainly a "sucker's bet" as there is so much more value on a weekly basis during the regular season when there is 60+ games to choose from in college and the NFL combined. If you disagree with us and think there is a lot of value on the Super Bowl, look no further than the graph on the bottom right of this page. The Vegas books have shown a profit in 27 of the last 29 Super Bowls.

We don't know about you, but we don't like losing and going up against a 93% profitable system is something we're not going to step in front of and it's why we don't usually have our biggest play of the year on the Super Bowl unlike many public bettors who tend to save their biggest bet of the year on the biggest game.

We do think there is some value on this year's Super Bowl and that comes with the total as we're going UNDER. We think there's been an over-re-action to KC's high-scoring playoff games. It is the highest total of the season for San Francisco by 4 points and it is the second highest total for a KC game this year.

If we lose that pick going against the popular call on the OVER then no doubt, we'll get some angry hate mail and phone calls. Win or lose, we would rather you judge us on the entire season where the star-rated picks on these pages (including bowls and playoffs) have gone 85-81-6 (not a good season). Add in the last three years and you're 462-369-16 (56%) betting every single star-rated pick on these pages the last 5 years. In an industry where so many touts advertise guaranteed winners and 70-90% records, the reality is 56% is the best record by far out of any newsletter the last 5 years (see page 4) and the most successful bettors (ex: Billy Walters) of all time have hit only 57% over the long haul.

Obviously we couldn't have had a successful last five years without your support and patronage. Again, we can't thank you enough that you took a chance on us in this season of BP Sports and for that we'll be forever grateful.

If you have any suggestions or comments on how we can improve this newsletter in the future please email us (brad@bradpowerssports.com) or send a quick note in the mail and we'll deduct $10 off next year's newsletter which is only $79 right now (price will go up after Super Bowl Sunday).

We hope you've enjoyed this season of BP Sports and we'll certainly only get bigger and better with each passing season. If you are wanting to sign up for next season please check out the back page for special early bird pricing that will expire on Super Bowl Sunday.

Super Bowl Betting Notes (Reported By ESPN)

-Last year, $145.9 million was bet on the Super Bowl at Nevada sports books. The books won $10.8 million when the Patriots beat the Rams.

-The books have posted a profit in 27 of the past 29 Super Bowls (see below).

-Since Nevada Gaming Control began tracking betting action on the Super Bowl in 1991, the books are up $186.4 million. Their only losses came in 2008, when the New York Giants upset the Patriots, and in 1995, when the San Francisco 49ers routed the San Diego Chargers (see chart below).

-According to an estimate released by the American Gaming Association, Americans will bet $6 billion on Super Bowl 54. Even with 20 states now offering sports betting, it is expected that at least 90% of that betting will be done so illegally.

-The early action on the Super Bowl total has been lopsided at most sportsbooks, growing from a consensus opener of 51.5 up to 54.5 at many books.

Five biggest Super Bowl bets so far

1. $684,000 on 49ers +2 (-114) at DraftKings Sportsbook in New Jersey (Tues., Jan. 21).
2. $200,000 on the Chiefs -1 at MGM book in Las Vegas (Sat., Jan. 25).
3. $187,000 on 49ers moneyline (+107) at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races in West Virginia (Tues., Jan. 21).
4. $150,000 on the Chiefs moneyline (-125) at MGM book in Las Vegas (Mon., Jan. 20).
5. $110,000 on Super Bowl LIV going over 52.5 points at the SuperBook at the Westgate Las Vegas (Sun., Jan. 19).

KANSAS CITY BY 1.5 ✔'s

SUPER BOWL 54 KEY ATS STATS

1. Kansas City head coach Andy Reid is 24-6 SU and 20-10 ATS off a bye in his career.

2. Kansas City is on a 8-0 SU and 8-0 ATS run out-scoring their opponents by 16 ppg and covering by 9 ppg.

3. The straight up winner of the Super Bowl is 45-6-2 ATS.

Kansas City 27 San Francisco 26. Super Bowl 54 offers a great match-up as you have the best young QB in the league (Patrick Mahomes) going against arguably the best young head coach in the NFL (Kyle Shanahan). Obviously, the 49ers have a long storied Super Bowl history having won 5 Super Bowl titles. However, they have zero titles in the last 25 years and are only making their 2nd appearance here since the 1994 season. Speaking of long droughts, the Chiefs are making their first Super Bowl appearance in 50 years!

We're torn on the match-up. Statistically speaking, the 49ers were superior as they were +11 ppg, +96 ypg and +1.3 ypp this season while the Chiefs were +10 ppg, +32 ypg and +0.9 ypp. However, note KC played 2.5 games without QB Patrick Mahomes and he was also limited in the Indianapolis and Houston games.

If you have an old-school thought process, you have to like the 49ers here. The team with the most rushing yards is 40-12 SU in Super Bowl. Note San Francisco has the No. 2 rush offense (No. 13 in DVOA) and No. 17 rush defense (No. 11 DVOA). Meanwhile, Kansas City No. 23 rush offense (No. 14 DVOA) and No. 26 rush defense (No. 29 DVOA). Also note the team with the better defense are 44-9 SU in the Super Bowl (49ers No. 2, Chiefs No. 17 in total defense).

However, if you're a "new school" thinker, we do believe Kansas City has the much better QB here in Patrick Mahomes and we also give head coach Andy Reid (especially off a bye) the edge over Shanahan. We still have major question marks on SF QB Jimmy Garoppolo in a pressure situation in the playoffs as he only has 28 pass attempts in his playoff career. Meanwhile, we don't have those same questions when it comes to Mahomes who hasn't thrown an interception in 4 playoff starts and has rallied his team several times.
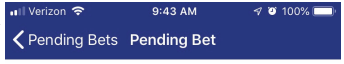

We do lean with the UNDER here because we believe it's a classic over-reaction to what you just saw last with KC (two high-scoring playoff games). It is the highest total for a SF game all year and it's the 2nd highest total for a KC game. Our favorite bet so far is Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes OVER 28.5 rush yards. In a high-stakes situation, KC won't be afraid to run Mahomes as evidence of his 53 rushing yards per game in the two playoff games this year. Meanwhile, San Francisco has been susceptible to running QB's this year allowing 57 rush ypg to Lamar Jackson, Kyler Murray (2 games) and Russell Wilson (2 games).
