

"The Traditional Classics Of Mediterranean Cuisine"

About Us

Jardins de Carthage was born on the southern bank of the Mediterranean, in Tunisia.

The fertile fields and superb climate have allowed for an abundance of the purest, freshest, and most natural vegetables to flourish in the land.

Our company was created by the multicultural and lifelong friendship of three men, Armand, Foued, and Robert, whom shared a love for life and good food.

Their Sicilian, Tunisian, and French origins, respectively, created the perfect mélange of tradition and cuisine that established the inspiration for the company.

A concoction of their individual roots, experiences, cultures, and favorite family recipes then led to the creation of our company, Jardins de Carthage.

Our products are now popular in some of the trendiest, ethnic restaurants across the world, and we offer many aromatic and authentic spreads that can provide another dimension to any dish.

Jardins de Carthage uses the unique ancestral methods of preparing freshly picked, crisp, delicious vegetables and transforming them, adding our special touch, into the Traditional classics of Mediterranean cuisine.

Our three Creators and the rest of our team invite you to discover our company, our story, and our line of carefully crafted products.
