

THEODORE C. BELDING

1920 - 1980

Dr. Theodore C. Belding, age 60, of Lansing, passed away Saturday, March 29 following a short illness.

He was born in Alpena, but spent most of his childhood in Pigeon. He was a practicing veterinarian for 34 years, having originally practiced with his father William A. Belding and brother Sherl Belding in Lansing. He later established the Holt Veterinary Clinic in which Dr. H.T. Fauser is now practicing.

Surviving are his wife, Bethany; two daughters, Belinda and Amy; three brothers, Dr. Ralph C. Belding of Lansing, Royce of Cedar Rapids, Iowa and Elwyn (Pete) Belding of Pigeon; two sisters, Maurine Kretzschmer of Detroit and Trudis Corum of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Memorial services were held Saturday, April 12 at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Church, Lansing.

The family requests that donations be made in memory of Dr. Belding to the intensive care unit at Ingham Medical Hospital, Lansing or the Michigan Heart Association, Reniger Bldg., 200 Mill St., Lansing.
