Welcome to Easter Sunrise!

April 21, 2019

St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, Juneau

Today's Service is divided into three parts.

I. The Service of Light: The candle, carried with loving reverence and lyrically praised in word and song, is a sign of Christ, "the Light of the world," and celebrates the victory of light over darkness which humanity has ever longed for.

II. The Service of Holy Baptism: Our Baptismal Connection to Christ "You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ." ""Do you not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? If we have been united with Him in His death, we will certainly also be united with Him in His resurrection."

III. The Service of Holy Communion: Proclamation of the Risen Savior and Our Blessed Reconciliation to God. "I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father's kingdom." "For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes."

May our Risen Lord bless our worship this morning as we celebrate the empty tomb!

Harmony of the Resurrection Accounts

(Matthew 28; Mark 16; Luke 24; John 20)

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene, out of whom Jesus had driven seven demons, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go to anoint Jesus' body. The women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They were on their way to the tomb and they asked each other, “Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?”

But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. (There had been a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.)

When the women entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them, and they were alarmed.

“Don’t be alarmed,” said the one sitting on the right side. “You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He is not here; He has risen, just as He said. See the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.’”

So the women, trembling and bewildered, hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell His disciples. When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.

Peter, however, and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved [John], started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus’ head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

Then the disciples went back to their homes, but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

"They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put Him." At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus.

"Woman," He said, "why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?"

Thinking He was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have put Him, and I will get Him."

Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned toward Him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

Jesus said, "Do not hold on to Me, for I have not yet returned to the Father. Go instead to My brothers and tell them, 'I am returning to My Father and Your Father, to My God and Your God.'"

Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that He had said these things to her.

P: He is risen!

C: He is risen indeed!

“Risen Today”

PART II: SERVICE OF HOLY BAPTISM

Our Baptismal Connection to Christ

P: On this holiest of days the whole Church of our Lord Jesus Christ recalls His death and burial, rejoicing in the gospel of His glorious resurrection from the dead. Holy Baptism is the precious means of grace by which our Father in heaven connects us with Christ in His life, death, and resurrection. The apostle Paul says in Romans chapter 6: “Do you not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? We were therefore buried with Him through Baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. If we have been united with Him in His death, we will certainly also be united with Him in His resurrection. For we know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we should no longer be slaves to sin--because anyone who has died has been freed from sin. Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him. For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, He cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over Him. The death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God. In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.”

Profession of Faith

please stand

P: In Holy Baptism God takes away our sins and gives new life in Christ, our Lord. We solemnly renounce the devil and all his works and all his ways; we confess the gift of faith in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I ask you: Do you reject the devil along with all his lies and empty promises?

C: Yes, and I ask God to help me.

P: Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty?

C: Yes, I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

P: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son?

C: Yes, I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

P: Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

C: Yes, I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

P: Will you continue steadfast in this baptismal faith and, as a member of the church, be diligent in the use of the Means of Grace and prayer?

C: Yes, and I ask God to help me.

P: Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has given you the new birth of water and of the Spirit and has forgiven you all your sins, strengthen you with His grace to life everlasting.
