HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

Story & Toddler Time

Story and Toddler Times have begun!

It was a long break without the kids at the library, but that just makes the reunion so much sweeter.

The kids have been pretty excited to be back, and we're excited, too!

Though it's just begun, we have a lot going on.

This time around, we're starting off a bit differently. The older, Story

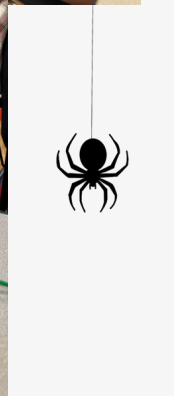

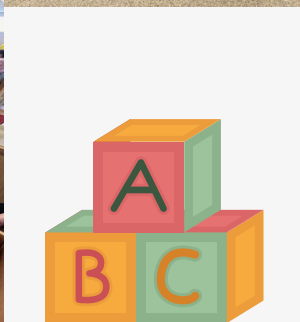

Time, kids are starting out with letters. We're introducing letter recognition early. They've learned about friendship, sharing, being kind, and always trying, too.

We'll continue with their letters and sounds, using name tags for them to find their names each class as well as letter tracing.

Toddler Time will also have name tags and the videos we play will also help with letters and their sounds.

Our Home School group is off to a great start, too! We're diving into learning reading comprehension as well as letter and sound recognition.

We're all learning education can be fun!
