Lucifer’s Hades
The Rebellious City In Heaven

The Bible explains the creation of man in Genesis 1:26-31, but it does not give an account of the creation of angels. Guccione Legend does, however, give an account of the creation of angels. It is said that the angels were created with Lucifer chosen as the great angel who had knowledge of the human body and nature. Apollyon was chosen as the angel who had knowledge of engineering. These two angels were created to be servants of God but they had a free will, like all of the other angels. As time went on, these two angels realized their knowledge was power, even though God had not seen it that way when he made them. They then rebelled together against God and lured other angels with them. They began to build in Heaven, and they made factories where they made cranes and construction robots. God saw what they were doing and let them do it, allowing any other angel that chose Lucifer over God to join them. And together, one third of the angels of Heaven built the city of Hades in rebellion against God.

Lucifer knew that God would destroy his body and cast him to earth, so he developed a secular humanist philosophy in Hades that would control man and man’s creation with psychology. Since the body of man was similar to the body of an angel, Lucifer learned about the body and how to manipulate and control it. The city of Hades then was centered around the eye, the organ for which Apollyon invented a camera to control. Lucifer then had Apollyon invent the computer which was a machine of the human brain. As Lucifer studied the body in Hades, he discovered many things including the use of viruses that would mutate bloodlines. He then figured out how to control DNA in an attempt to create life himself. He invented machinery using Apollyon’s talents including the fully automatic rifle which today is an UZI. He predicted there would be an AntiChrist on the earth that would rule in the Last Days when this technology would be made available to the common man. Money was also invented in Heaven.

After Lucifer and Apollyon had built Hades and one third of the angels joined them, God used Michael the archangel to wage a war against the bodies of Lucifer and his angels, and Michael destroyed all of the bodies. But God had designed the soul of the angels to live forever, unless it could constantly burn in molten lava.

The angels’ souls then were cast to the earth where they hovered above man. Any man could take a soul. He was first possessed by the spirit of the angel, and the more he committed wickedness he could later accept the soul. Once he had the soul he would think nothing of committing an abomination. The trade-off for this was the knowledge that came from Lucifer and the fallen angels to control other men. Lucifer had invented romantics for men in Hades such as Sodom, the fallen angel of homosexuality.

Many people today do not think about the spiritual world. They are caught up in the materials of life and they can not ascribe to angels and God. That is the way Lucifer keeps man ignorant. His Secular Humanist philosophy excludes God as the creator and sustainer of life, and he refuses to believe in an afterlife.
Dr. DiLullo Cleared
Past Difficulties, Present Successes

In Issue 27 of the Guccie Times, a report was made about Dr. DiLullo’s alleged mistreatment of Jim Robinson. Jim had only sought the doctor’s understanding of his emotional stress at the time he was examining his childhood trauma with his family. Jim had left some notes at a few restaurants in his area seeking their help, and the notes came back on him when they were reported to his doctor and probation officer. The doctor responded with his liability to the community by raising Jim’s medications instead of allowing Jim to seek the counsel of his clinician on the matter. The former report made in our newsletter denounced Dr. DiLullo’s decision. At this time we would like to apologize for that article. Jim has now worked out the medication issue with his new doctor and we feel that the clinic has now been understanding.

The Guccie Times has a philosophy about psychiatric institutions: doctors and clinicians should always try to reduce the physiological medication and replace it with therapy or another form of psychological stimuli. We do understand, however, that medication additions may be necessary for patients who have a blood issue with mental illness—for those of whom it is not a condition of a trauma.

What Is the Catholic Church?
Pagan Disguised as Christian

In around the time of 300 AD, an Emperor rose to power in Rome by the name of Constantine. This emperor wanted to create a universal [Catholic] church that combined pagan and Christian deities in an effort to provide the leading bloodline with a tool for controlling man and creating a master-slave society. Constantine then adopted Christian names for pagan names such as Mary (Jesus’ mother) for the goddess Samarias and Jesus for Nimrod (her son). A great amount of folklore surrounds the relationship of Samarias and Nimrod that is very evil, and Jack Chick outlined a good portion of it in his literature. Chick (center) was a illustrator of the Plan of Salvation, and he opposed the Catholic Church.

The pagan/Christian philosophy of the Catholic Church was developed by Jesuit Priests serving Constantine. The Jesuit was also called a Baal Priest of the Bible and these pagan gods are from the religion of Babylon. Jesuits, a romantic of Lucifer’s Hades, have been around secretly since the Generation of Cain. The Catholic Church is likened to Babylon in the KJV, and it falls in Revelation 18.

As a result of the formation of the Catholic Church, the Jesuits ran rampant in civilizations inventing religions to deceive people from a simple salvation in Jesus Christ to worshipping idols of pagan religions, including the popular secular humanism of the modern, New Age technological society. The rise of the Roman Empire in the Last Days was prophesied in the King James Bible in Revelation, and you can find a report on it in Soulwinner Newsletter Issue 23: Daniel and Revelation.

In order for the Catholic Church to be successful, it had to have a public image of good works. Thus there developed "saints," all of the Catholic charities and the documentary reviews of great Catholic men and women such as Cyril Charles Martindale. Martindale, upper left, was probably a public face, the “good doer” of the Jesuit Priest.

The bottom right illustrations are symbols of the 3 major religions allegedly invented by the Jesuit Priests of the Catholic Church to deter civilization away from Christianity (linking from left to right: Muslim, Buddhist, Hindu). We have seen the results of the Muslim religion in the United States. The Qur-an contains specific verses about murdering infidels, especially Christians and Jews (see Soulwinner Newsletter Issue 52: The Muslims’ Hate for Christians). The Catholic Church then, as a servant to the evil bloodline, used the Muslim false religion to hate an historically Christian America enough to attack the Twin Towers.

Millions of people have been subject to a devout membership to the Catholic Church, often the result of family tradition. Even with all of the convictions of child molestation, the catholic church still has millions of members worldwide.
One of America’s Greatest Sins
The Worshipping of Idols

The very first of the Ten Commandments in Exodus 20:1-6 of the KJV orders mankind not to worship false gods that come in the form of idols. Today, that god can be money or fame, or a variety of other things that compose our daily thinking.

Americans have been made insensitive to the realities of the world by technology and the progress of the beast of revelation (the computer, especially as it comes in mobile form). Our minds are controlled by pictures, and the younger generation does not have any idea what it was like in a world without a camera. Lucifer succeeded in his objective of making society reliant on the beast. As such, we will be addressed by the AntiChrist with his medium in his prophesied rise to power for the creation of a master-slave world. The middle-class will be faced with a decision to abuse the poor and be a part of the leadership class or become poor themselves. This will systematically eliminate a middle-class that traditionally supported a working-class. Thus the resulting upper-class and poor will create a master-clave society based in the worshipping of idols.

Troy, NY’s Quadruple Homicide in Dec 2017
Did the Upper Class Have a Role In It?

The following investigation is based on a developing theory and The Guccie Times has no evidence, other than internet and licensed news research, to support its claims. It is, however, an attempt to examine the probable rise in Lucifarianism in the Upper Class of American Society. We at The Guccie Times do not wish to pollute our document with these stories, but since the crime was so close to home we felt a need to examine it. We feel that The (Troy) Record and the Troy Police Department may be hiding things from the public in an effort to protect a local Freemason Society.

Troy’s Quadruple Homicide terrorized the city in December of last year. Two black men are currently undergoing trial for the murders. They were found as suspects within about 3 days of the murder. But it is too late. If the murder was a Masonry Human Sacrifice (the result of a Classical Conditioning of the murderers), then the atonement was already made.

Is it possible for a police department to confide in an upper-class when it deals with the poor and felons? Is it always the only whim of the murderer to be blamed for the death of lower income victims? How can one police department agree to something that another police department deems criminal? Jim Robinson told the Troy Police he was carrying a CO2 pistol to be used for self-defense, but the Colonie Police arrested Jim for displaying it (even though it was not used as a weapon). Jim feels he is no longer allowed to defend himself because any form of physical violence in self-defense would be deemed as assault by the police. Is this a mark of the upper classes that control the lower classes when the middle-class is free to carry a concealed weapon? Does this then support the claim that the upper-class may have had something to do with the murders which could have been Satanic sacrifice for the Freemason? Although we do not dilute the fault of the murderers in this case, there may be more to it than the bias of the news reports. It is quite possible this was a racist-motivated sacrifice by causation Satanists. The condition of the victims after the murder reveals an act of savagery on the murderers’ part which is typical for a LaVey sacrifice. We are unable to make these connections right now, but this will serve for future investigation.
