

ROD HOWELL

Company Teacher & Choreographer

Class Teacher

Rodney Howell has over 20 years of experience teaching and choreographing throughout the country. He's taught for numerous conventions including Encore, L.A. Underground, L.A. Elite and 3D Dance Network. His choreography is learned and performed throughout the world earning top awards at competitive events.

He's a leader in the online tap community, especially for his tap dance video dictionary and syllabus which is the largest in the world. Rod has become a global tap dance phenomenon through his online presence on youtube and his website unitedtaps.com.

He performed on the TV show Soapnet to his own musical composition, and his taps were recorded for the nationally televised Miss America Pageant. He has also performed at Lincoln Center in New York and the House of Blues in LA. His extensive technical knowledge combined with his intense passion for tap make him a true one of a kind in the tap world.

Rod teaches tap classes at Aspire, and he is also the coach and choreographer of the Aspire Dance Company tap crews. His choreography has won multiple regional and national titles, and outstanding choreography awards. Rod is going into his 5th year of sharing his passion, knowledge, and talent with the dancers at Aspire!
