

Kenney, Dorothy

Dorothy Kenney, 88, of Sebewaing passed away Friday, Oct. 12, 2007 at Bay Regional Medical Center.

The former Dorothy Mc Henry was born Sept. 12, 1919 in Detroit and came to the Thumb as a child.

She was a Gagetown High School graduate and went on to Del Mar Beauty School in Detroit. She owned and operated Dorothy's Beauty Salon in Sebewaing for 61 years. Dorothy was a "Rosie the Riveter," contributing to the war effort. She is survived by one daughter, Jane Rosenau of Caseville; two grandchildren, Rene (John) Allard of Clinton Township, and Robert N. Rosenau of Warren; five great-grandchildren, Elisha, John II, Cory and Alexandria Allard and Jason Johnson; her siblings, Betty (Harold) Johnston of Alma and William (Jeanne) Mc Henry of Linwood; and many loving nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Sadie and Claude Mc Henry, she was preceded in death by the remainder of her siblings, Herb Mc Henry, Evelyn Alley and Virginia Fournier.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Oct. 14, 2007 at the Collon Funeral Home in Caro with Mary Ann Saenen, Lay Minister at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, officiating. Burial at Sacred Heart Catholic Cemetery, Caro.

Memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Please feel free to share your thoughts, memories and prayers with the family at www.collonfuneralhome.com.

Published in the Huron Daily Tribune on 10/15/2007.