

Zmierski, Walter

Mr. Walter Zmierski, 74, of Cass City, passed away Wednesday, March 24, 2004, at his son Michael's home in Elkland Township. Walter was born March 21, 1930 in Detroit, the son of John and Cecelia (Kuczkowska) Zmierski. He served in the U.S. Army and worked as a laborer for General Cable, retiring in 1992. In 1955, he married Evelyn Gabler. Walter was a member of the D.A.V. Atomic War Veterans and the National Rifle Association. He is survived by his sons, Michael and his wife, Deb, of Cass City, and Mark and his wife, Becky, of Caro; daughters, Angela Noble and her husband, Craig, of Charleston, South Carolina and Teresa Enos and her husband, John, of Elk City, Idaho, and Deanne Brown and her husband, Chuck, of Midland; 15 grandchildren; special friend, Florence Byarski. He was predeceased by his parents; his brothers, Joseph, Sylvester, Edward, Casimer, Chester and John; sisters, Helen, Jennie and Eleanor Doerr. A memorial service will be at 11 a.m. on Monday, March 29, 2004, at Novesta Church of Christ with the Rev. Chuck Emmert officiating. Inurnment will be in Elkland Township Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Heartland Hospice.