

Steven P. Manuli, MD

Board Certified in Internal Medicine & Sleep Medicine

Dr. Manuli is a graduate UNC School of Medicine and completed his residency at Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte, NC where he served as Chief Resident in Internal Medicine. Dr. Manuli completed his undergraduate degree in Chemistry at North Carolina State University, graduating Summa Cum Laude.

Dr. Manuli began his medical practice in Statesville, NC prior to moving to Elizabeth City in 2002 to be close to family. Being an avid fisherman Dr. Manuli truly enjoys living in the Albemarle area. Dr. Manuli receives great satisfaction serving the people of the area.

Dr. Manuli lives in Elizabeth City with his wife Cindy. His children Stephanie and Chris are attending his and Cindy's alma mater, North Carolina State University in Raleigh. In his free time, Dr. Manuli enjoys assistant coaching the football team at Northeastern High School, watching NCSU Wolfpack and Carolina Panther football, deep sea fishing, traveling and reading.