+ MUSIC MINISTRY

fzelinka@stpiustenthparish.org

On this All Saints day, let's look at what some of the saints say regarding the role of music in the Church and in our lives. Probably the most famous quote from any saint regarding music is from St. Augustine. "He who sings well prays twice." What does St. Augustine mean by this? Of course, God does not count our prayers and give us credit based on the number of our prayers. I think what St. Augustine is getting at is that music has a special way of opening the human heart to God's grace. God is always pouring out His grace and gifts upon us, but we can often be like bottles with the caps sealed tight. Sung prayer helps us to forget ourselves and open our hearts to God's grace and the power of the Holy Spirit. So, the one who sings reaps greater benefits of prayer because of his or her greater openness to God. St Paul clearly understood this as he urged the early Christians in the letter to the Ephesians, "...Be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart." Although we are not able to fully sing at Mass, is there a way that music can deepen our prayer and our relationship with God at home?

Faith Formation

Families in Faith

ALL SAINTS DAY/ ALL SOULS DAY

Need an alternate family religious experience if you cannot attend Mass on either of these holy days?

November 1- - Suggestion: Plan together for an intentional sharing about each of your Baptismal names. If appropriate, what is your chosen Confirmation name? What does it mean? What can you share about that saint? WHY did you chose that name? End with a “Litany” of your family saints and St. Pius Tenth, pray for us.

November 2 – Suggestion: Schedule a stop at any cemetery you are near (or where loved ones are buried) and pray for all those who have died and await the eternal vision of God’s face. Maybe someone will pray for you someday, too. Or, sit in a quiet place at home and pray for your ancestors in faith.

TRANSLATION SERVICE

Fr. Stephen now sends a Burmese translation the Sunday Gospel. Look for it on Friday on the SPX Myanmar Community Facebook page, facebook.com/myanmarcommunityatstpiusx If you read the national language, it will help you to prepare more fully for Mass. IS THERE ANYONE ABLE AND WILLING TO TRANSLATE THE SUNDAY GOSPEL INTO KARENNI? KAREN? This can be your stewardship from home.

STEWARDSHIP FORMS

Even though many are not signed up for Families in Faith, we still need catechists, translators, truck drivers, bus drivers (hopefully), as well as the other ministries.

ALPHA for EVANGELIZATION

Our Parish ALPHA team invites you to go to Mass one extra day per month for the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

How Can I Help?

- Have you filled in and returned your stewardship form to the Church Office? We will be following up on forms this week, so consider how your talents and time can benefit the many ministries here at St Pius. You can fill out your form and return it through the mail, at the office, or in the collection basket at Mass.
- One of our ministries is St. Vincent de Paul. They will be preparing to create and give out Thanksgiving food baskets in November. Consider giving a food donation to help with this service. Bags with a list of items for the food baskets are located in the back of the Parish Hall Church near the office door.

97 families (22% of the Parish) have returned their stewardship cards as of October 25. Thank you for your generosity!
