

The Best way to shape a life is to be under the tutelage of Ms. Lynn Welters. It was me who had a dream and Ms. Welters who saw it through. She's been instrumental in helping me reached goals not only in the industry but, in my life period. My first time on the plane was with Ms. Welters taking me to CHINA to perform then to Amsterdam. She was also my first employer as well. She's a beam of light representing hope in a world of darkness. I see her as my Godmother, mentor and friend. Oh, she'll praise you when you're doing well and call you out loud and clear when your headed to a place of oblivion. This Angel broaden my perspective on the world and its possibilities. As a result of her dedication and commitment to me I've worked with Top Industry Professionals and Organizations. Some credits include: Alvin Ailey student showcase Group (for promising Dancers), Something New (Focus Features), AVATAR (Twentieth Century FOX)Tokyo, Disney, Hairspray (Sacramento Music Circus), Person of Interest (CBS), Boardwalk Empire (HBO), Dance Spirit Magazine, Sony arts Media Kennedy Center etc. There aren't any words that can describe the magnitude of passion she possesses for the Arts and LOVE for people. It's and honor and privilege to know such a selfless and Special person. Thank you Ms. Welters for not only sculpting lives, but saving them! Love,

Melvin Leno Clark, III
