

CLAY R. METIVA

1951-1993

Clay R. Metiva, 41 of Akron, died there Saturday, April 24.

He was born in Bay City on Nov. 21, 1951, the son of John L. and Evelyn Metiva. He lived all his life in the Akron Area.

Mr. Metiva served in the U.S. Army, spending one tour of duty in Germany. While in military service he received training as a food specialist, and on completion of his service, he worked in that capacity at several restaurants in the Bay City area.

He is survived by his mother, Evelyn of Akron, two brothers and one sister-in-law, Boyd Metiva of Akron and LeRoy and Madelyn Metiva of Caro, and two sisters and a brother-in-law, Jean and Ed Nellott of Akron and Darlene Osbourn of Lapeer.

He was preceded in death by his father, John L. Metiva.

The funeral service took place Monday afternoon, April 26, in Briggs-Trenery Funeral Home, Akron, with Rev. Mark Karls of Wiener United Methodist Church officiating.

Friends wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider the Wiener Church.
