CHIEF'S CHATTER

Merry Christmas everyone.

I was glad to see so many people were able to make it to the Christmas party. My GPS had me drive by the place and circle around through some parking lots and then back onto the road again, before getting us to the restaurant (when I say GPS, I mean Catie). I hope everyone had a good time. The food was very good and, I think, people enjoyed the Christmas trivia game. Thank you to every one that helped plan the events. We were able to collect $292 dollars for Benjamins Hope, which the club increased to a $600 dollar donation. For more information on Benjamins Hope please visit their website:
www.benjaminshope.net.

We also collected a few boxes of goods for the GR Veterans Home. I was able to drop them off at the home on Monday. I did not realize they kept 9-5 business hours when I said I could drop them off. Thank you to all the members for your donations and your gifts. It is nice to see that our club members are willing to donate so much to charities throughout the year.

Our next meeting is January 2, 2018 at Famous Dave's. We will be planning our events calendar for the coming year. Please bring any ideas/activities that you would like to see the club do/take part in. It will make filling up the calendar a lot easier.

Until next time, get out and drive.

Ryan Snyder

REMEMBER YOUR ANNUAL DUES OF $25

Should be paid to Terri Miller
by the January meeting.

December 2017 Meeting Report

Our faithful Secretary, Dan, did not attend the Christmas Party on December 8, so we do not have his meeting notes.

We did not do any business at the Party.

Thank you to Catie for creating our Christmas Trivia game. It was fun and got us all interacting. Congratulations to the team of Herb & Judy Howes and Doug & Judy Mesman for being the winners.

Tom Ensing brought his new Club Memory board with pictures and lists of things the club has done over the years. Great job Tom!

Thank you everyone for your expressions of kindness at the passing of my dad. Most of you knew how close we were. We worked together for so many years and enjoyed our old trucks at many car events also. We will miss him very much. Having such wonderful friends makes it easier. Thank you.
Ron & Elaine Van Zytveld.
