

JRW Behavioral Health Services
Randall Webber, MPH, CADC
Top News Stories for October 30-November 5, 2016

State policies will determine whether most Americans smoke marijuana or not

Smoking marijuana may help with night vision

Workplace marijuana bans weigh in decision of whether or not to smoke

Conference highlights drug abuse epidemic's effects on kids

It's time for primary care providers to embrace treating addiction

Children who witness violence or are sexually abused are 3 and 5 times more likely to inject drugs as adults

Successes in medication-assisted drug treatment programs

Heavy drinking while young may mean hefty health tab later

Report: military wives more likely to suffer mental illness, alcohol abuse

Why some pot smokers face a higher risk of drinking problems

Browse LCSW/LCPC/IAODAPCA home study courses and view our Fall 2016 central Illinois workshop series here.

JRW Behavioral Health Services
855-726-8336 (Toll free)
www.randallwebber.com