South Florida Community Leader Continues to Give Back

West Palm Beach, FL – November 29, 2017 – Distinguished Palm Beach County trial lawyer and pharmacist, Salesia V. Smith-Gordon, known for her longstanding commitment to the community, has been chosen as an advisory board member for a premier South Florida global business network, ICABA®-International Career and Business Alliance, Inc.

ICABA seeks to connect accomplished black professionals and entrepreneurs to build productive relationships, share information, and activate opportunities that assist them in achieving their career, business, and lifestyle aspirations.

“Noted attorney and civic leader Salesia Smith-Gordon has lent her valuable support to establishing a Palm Beach County Chapter of ICABA,” states Jerome Hutchinson, Founder and Chief Servant Officer for ICABA. “We are honored and excited to have her as part of our team and with her active support, we are confident we will succeed and have a positive impact, he states further.

“I am proud to have the opportunity to work with an organization distinguished by respected professionals with a commitment to community empowerment,” notes Smith-Gordon. “It’s an exciting time and I’m eager to help advance ICABA’s mission of building connections that help promote the growth of business and wealth initiatives in South Florida,” she further states.

Additional information about ICABA is available on its website at: www.icabaworld.com.
