Brian Calverley Worshipful Master 2020-21

Brethren, Family and Friends,
welcome to October I hope you and your family are keeping well.

As we are all aware Covid-19 is still hanging around, while we are allowed to meet in person masks are required while in the meeting.

We are having our October stated meeting on Monday October 4th, light fair food prior at 6:30PM and the business meeting starts at 7:30PM. If you plan on attending please let myself or brother Junior Warden – Pete Cardilla know so we can plan for food and refreshments. We are back to business dress where business casual is fine.

Our building renovation is ongoing and the place is looking great, we hope to be home soon.

The officer team is working on our degree practices and I appreciate the number of younger members willing to assist. We have quite a backlog of candidates so hopefully we can start completing some of this work in the near future. I appreciate everyone's patience.

We ended up cancelling the family, BBQ and chili cook-off hosted by the Santa Cruz County Lodges which was scheduled for October 2nd at Paradise Park picnic grounds. Due to a resurgence of Covid-19 cases related to the Delta variant Paradise Park has cancelled group gatherings at this time. Hopefully this event will be back on for Fall 2022. Wr. Sigismondi and Junior Warden Pete Cardilla are planning to win the cook-off next year so let the competition begin! You have a full year to hone your chili skills.

Grand Lodge – Annual Communication “Together Again” is in person this year in San Francisco October 8 – 10, 2021, more information on page 4.

Fraternally,
Brian Calverley – PM

Beloved Brethren,

I have been doing a fair amount of memory work as I prepare to potentially assume the position of master of the lodge next year, but I do this eagerly because the benefits are many. Studying the ritual material and learning it by heart is a great way to incorporate its wisdom at a deep level while sharpening the mind. The fact that repetition leads to adoption is one of the keys of Masonry, in my opinion, and it gives us a rich set of tools to use for every situation in life. So, I encourage each of you to consider serving as an officer of the lodge if you haven't already and joining a degree team. The amount of work required is minimal, but the rewards are immense! Now, for a quick lodge update. Finally, the renovation project is heading into the home stretch. Final inspections on the structural work are taking place at this point, which means that soon the insulation, wiring, and drywall can go in. Honestly, I think the toughest parts are all behind us, and we should be on track to have use of the building again in December or thereabouts. We will need plenty of help setting everything up, of course, but then we can hold an awesome open house to celebrate!

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

Zeke Floro (Sr. Warden)

Brethren, family, and friends,

My apologies for having missed you last month. The time I allocated for writing a trestleboard article, became suddenly and unexpectedly occupied by travel to the east coast and attendance to my family, and I was unable to recover it. As they say, time waits for no man.

Here now we see, as summer ends and fall begins, that very parade of time and season is on broad display and before long the autumn will reign in full.

I've always loved fall. Growing up as I did in the northeast, with the spectacular beauty of the changing leaves and the refreshing return of cool weather, fall was my favorite season. School brought back friends and fall sports and soon Halloween and the beginning of the holiday season.

For some reason this – the return of holidays and traditions – I find to be very comforting.

Maybe it's the sharper focus on family and friends that I find to be revitalizing. Maybe it's the sharing in celebration and participation in common traditions that rejuvenates the spirit. Maybe it's the gradual ease with which the day cedes hours to the night, that slow certainty, that unwinds ahead of sleep – like nature gently tucking us in, before putting us to bed for winter. Maybe it's the food and drink and the gifts and parties. Maybe it's the anticipation of the culmination of this year and yet another new beginning, the ever returning symbol of hope.

Maybe it's all of those things or maybe it's something else I'm overlooking. Whatever the reason may be, I do love fall and I look forward to all of the things that await us as a lodge and as a fraternity in the next few months. As we maintain hope for a return to our beloved building in Soquel before winter, we are prepared to create some meaningful memories for our brothers, while we still occupy our temporary residence in Santa Cruz and are excited again, as usual, to see what the season brings.

With my warmest wishes to all of you this autumn season,

Peter Cardilla
Jr. Warden

GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET

SPOUSE AND PARTNER
EVENT

We are looking forward to seeing you in San Francisco on October 8, but we must let you know that there will be new protocols in place to comply with San Francisco's COVID-19 safety requirements.

These protocols are:

- All attendees, staff, and exhibitors over the age of 12 will be required to show proof of full vaccination before entering the California Masonic Memorial Temple, and at the Grand Master's Banquet and Gala, the Spouses and Partners, and all other dinners and events that occur inside. Full vaccination means that the final dose (or single dose, in the case of Johnson & Johnson) of the vaccine was administered by September 24, 2021, which is two weeks prior to the event.
- Masks will be required indoors at all times, unless actively eating or drinking.
- Children over the age of 12 are required to be vaccinated. Children over the age of 2 are required to wear masks indoors.

Please also note:

- Negative COVID-19 tests are not sufficient to enter the building or attend an event.
- Proof of vaccination can be digital. You can show a picture of your vaccination card and photo ID, use a digital COVID-19 vaccine record issued by the State of California, or an approved private app to verify vaccination status.

If you would like more information, you can read the San Francisco guidance here: <https://sf.gov/information/vaccine-required>

We thank you for your diligence in following these rules, and we look forward to seeing you at the Annual Communication. If you have questions, please email us at memberservices@freemason.org or call us at (415) 776-7000.
