

Swanson Real Estate Welcomes New Agent Colleen Hogan

Sandwich, IL – Swanson Real Estate would like to announce and welcome a new member to their team of real estate professionals, Colleen Hogan. Colleen, her husband Kevin and their son live in Big Rock on their family farm. The family farming business also includes aerial application services in which Colleen continues to manage the day-to-day operations with her husband. Colleen is also a proud mom that is involved in her son's sport activities and active in her community. Her business and customer relationship experience also includes working in the Airline industry for many years.

Colleen started her real estate career in 2016 with a Naperville agency, as a buyer specialist and Colleen has suggested that “she joined the Swanson Real Estate team for the hometown feel and to be closer to her family and friends.” Colleen brings with her an unsurpassed level of excellence in customer service and is looking forward to working with buyers and sellers with their real estate needs.

Broker Owner(s) Linda and Jim Swanson and Joe Frieders of Swanson Real Estate ask the community to help welcome Colleen and suggests that she can be reached by calling their Sandwich office at 815-786-9418 or directly at 630-791-0202. Information about Colleen or to learn more about Swanson Real Estate please visit www.swansonrealestate.net.