"Dreams of Equality" is a film commissioned by the National Park Service for Women's Rights National Historical Park in Seneca Falls, New York. The First Women's Rights Convention was held in the Wesleyan Chapel on July 19 - 20, 1848 in Seneca Falls. The convention drew over 300 people to discuss the "social, civil and religious rights and condition of women." One hundred women and men echoed these words with their signatures in support of the Declaration of Sentiments proclaimed by Elizabeth Cady Stanton.
