

Karen Nelson

I used to visit New Mexico as a favorite vacation place. I love the scenery, history and weather. My dream was to live here and that came true in 2001. I can be found out photographing and painting the beautiful landscape. I have been juried into two different galleries over the years with my oil paintings. I am also a member of the Gallery shop at Fuller Lodge in Los Alamos, N.M. with my beaded jewelry.