

The Boot Boogie Babes, Seattle's Line Dance Team are the most recognizable line dance team in the world! They are "by far the most famous line dance team and have gained world wide popularity with their unique brand of line dancing" says Country Rebel with over 7 million online fans.

The Boot Boogie Babes are led by choreographer DeAnna Lee from Seattle's 100.7 The Wolf. They've opened shows for Justin Moore, performed live with Loretta Lynn's granddaughter Tayla Lynn and Aaron Crawford, on the Main Stage at The Darrington Spur Festival, and on the ice at Seattle Thunderbird games. The Boot Boogie Babes have been featured in country music videos and were asked by Luke Combs, Drew Baldridge, and several local artists to choreograph line dances for their popular country songs. They were also asked to put on the first ever line dance instillation at Watershed Country Music Festival that draws country music fans from all over the world! Now that's a "Kick Your Boots Up" good time!

The Boot Boogie Babes also believe that helping local charities is a great way to give back to the community and have been involved in raising over $26,000 to help find a cure with Valley Medical Center and Valley Girls and Guys!

The Boot Boogie Babes brand has grown with the addition of an The Boot Girls, Seattle's Intermediate Line Dance Team, and the newest addition to our #DanceFamily our Beginner Line Dance Team, The Boot Chicks! They also teach Beginner Boot Camps all over the Puget Sound in Lynnwood, Bremerton, Kent, Gig Harbor, Spanaway, and Seattle!
