

Philippine Consulate General Conducts Saturday Consular Outreach and CELPIP Information Session in North Vancouver

16 March 2019 – The Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver held its second Saturday consular outreach at the Holy Trinity Parish Church's Hall in North Vancouver, to provide consular services to Filipinos residing in the area and assist those unable to come to the Consulate on weekdays due to work commitments.

(Left photo) In conjunction with Post's Saturday Consular Outreach in North Vancouver, POLO-Vancouver organized an information workshop on the Canadian English Language Proficiency Index Program (CELPIP) under OWWA's language training program, conducted by Paragon Testing Enterprises, Inc. Post has partnered with Paragon Testing in running free CELPIP information sessions and test preparation workshops for interested Filipinos in Greater Vancouver who need to submit themselves to English testing as part of the requirements for having their credentials recognized, for meeting certain industry or company qualifications, or for applying for permanent residency.

(Right photo) POLO-Vancouver participates in the Saturday consular outreach by providing OEC and OWWA membership services.