Quotes:

“I am not the most eloquent nor persuasive writer, but Kya is the literal definition of a leader. Each time I see her I teasingly call her Miss. President because I truly believe that she is on the path to creating a bright and caring future for her generation and generations to come.” Juanita Williams - Dance Studio Owner

“The support from both the Foundation and Donors will directly impact my ability to reach my goals significantly. I come from a low socio-economic neighborhood, where financial opportunities are not always available. Despite this fact, I have never expected anything short of greatness from myself, and college was never not an option. With the aid provided from this foundation my goals are beginning to seem more attainable.” Kya
