

St. Louis Area Assistant Principals' and Athletic Directors' Workshop

Calling all St. Louis Metro Area educators interested in becoming assistant principals and athletic directors in a secondary school setting: principals, assistant principals, and athletic directors from St. Louis metro area schools facilitate all aspects of this workshop. Take advantage of the professional networking opportunities as you spend the day with area administrators.

A sampling of the workshop events:

- Leadership matters from an area superintendent
- Mock interviews with principals and athletic directors
- Human Resources Q & A panel
- Breakout sessions: assistant principal panels for high school and middle school, and an athletic director panel
