PRESENTER - ANDREW SEUBERT, LMHC, NCC

Andrew is a nationally certified counselor, Licensed mental health counselor and an EMDRIA-approved consultant and trainer with extensive background in an Existential-Gestalt approach to growth and therapy. Always drawn to forms of therapy that address the entire person—mind, body, emotions, creativity and spirit, Andrew has developed an extremely holistic approach in his work with individuals, couples, families and groups.

Formerly an educator, musician and Peace Corps Volunteer, Andrew has consulted with Corning Inc, small businesses and human service agencies, providing stress management and conflict resolution training, as well as workshops and coaching that facilitate personal growth and performance enhancement.

He has published peer-reviewed articles and book chapters, as well as his first book, "The Courage to Feel", and his recently released book and workbook - "How Simon Left His Shell: The Courage to Feel for Young People."

Andrew is a highly engaging, interactive therapist and retreat/workshop facilitator whose passion about his work is expressed in his use of music, creative imagination, experiential approaches and humor.

In addition to working with a broad spectrum of therapeutic issues, Andrew has a strong interest in healing from trauma and PTSD, particularly through the use of EMDR. This interest also informs his approach in working with eating disorders and helping couples create and renew their relationship. His passion for an integration of psychotherapy and spirituality is a driving force, whether in individual sessions, workshops or intensive Personal Therapeutic Retreats.

TAKE YOUR PSYCHOTHERAPY PRACTICE TO THE NEXT LEVEL

JOIN US FOR THIS GREAT OPPORTUNITY WITH ANDREW.

ClearPath Training Center, is pleased to offer "Becoming Known: A Relational Model for Ego State/Parts Therapy" with Andrew Seubert, LMHC, NCC. This two-day workshop covers the integration of "parts" or ego state practice with a trauma-informed phase model from a highly relational perspective.

The workshop has evolved from Andrew's work as an EMDR consultant and trainer, during which Andrew realized the crucial need for ego state competence when working with trauma and dissociation (this workshop will NOT address extreme forms of dissociation, viz., DDNOS and DID).

LEARNING OBJECTIVES—PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- ◇ Name three major approaches to explaining ego state phenomena.
- ◇ Use the acronym, RUG-C, to describe the major steps in working with parts.
- ◇ Utilize the conference room technique to make contact with parts
- ◇ Describe two scenarios that complicate and, potentially, interfere with parts work.
- ◇ Describe where and when an ego state approach fits into a trauma-informed phase model.

WHAT PARTICIPANTS ARE SAYING:

What a wonderful workshop!your videos and role plays were fantastic. But I still want to hear everything you have to say too!

T.F., March 2017, South Carolina

Andrew is the real deal as a trainer and a masterful clinician! When I signed up for my first training with Andrew (EMDR Basic Skills) I had no idea what a transformative experience it would be. I expected what I had experienced in trainings, ...someone who told all about the 'what' of the selected topic, ...Andrew was the first person who actually taught the 'how', as in how to actually use the technique presented!! Over the days of training I watched a clearly masterful clinician turn a concept into practice, and I was awed.

Linda J. Nelson, Penn Yan NY, Summer 2014

In March of this year I had the pleasure of hosting Andrew Seubert, author of The Courage to Feel. His workshop on Parts/Ego State Work in EMDR Practice was wonderful. I have had lots of feedback from the attendees and we all found his workshop exceptionally educational, inspirational, and enjoyable. He is a highly-skilled, sincere clinician who teaches concrete therapeutic skills in a relaxed atmosphere. Oh, and he has a great sense of humor as well. His live demonstrations and videos were particularly helpful to the attendees. Roxann Hassett. LPC, NCC, Charleston SC. March 2017
